Turn Out! Turn Out!!

Let there be a great turn-out this evening at West Market Hall. Frank P. Blair, Hon. John Wentworth, Hon. Ebenezer Peck, Van H. Higgins, S. L. Baker, Caspar Butz and all hands will be there.

West Side Meeting This Afternoon.

By reference to another column it will be seen that some of our Republican friends on the West Side have called a meeting for consultation at two o'clock P. M. to-day. Under all the circumstances it is perhaps advisable that such a meeting be held, and we doubt not that after a full interchange of views the result will be a determination to support the County Republican ticket precisely in the shape that it was presented by the Convention. We trust the candidates for the Legislature will be invited to appear before the meeting and define their position fully upon all questions of local interest. If this be done, there can be but one conclusion on the part of our Republican friends, and that is to work zealously for the ticket and vote for it. We caution the meeting to be on its guard against interloping Douglasites whose interest it is to foment dissensions in our ranks. They have no other hope of success, and in their zeal to defeat us, some of them may be found trying to influence the action of the meeting and perhaps to vote upon the various questions that may be raised. This is a matter which our Republican friends are abundantly competent to manage themselves, and we hope they will tolerate no interference on the part of their political opponents.

The Galesburg Debate.

GALESBURG, Iowa, Sept. 29, 1858.

Editors Press and Tribune:

Please inform the readers of your paper the time of the debate between Lincoln and Douglas at Galesburg on the 7th of October. Will it be in the daytime or evening, and at what hour. Many Republicans from Muscatine will be there. Insert notice in paper and oblige.

Yours truly, G. W. V.

[The previous debates have all commenced at 2 P. M., and we believe that is the hour fixed on by the Galesburg Committees.—Eds. P. & T.]

The Berks District, Pa.

There is a most animated and exciting contest going on in Old Berks—the county that gave Buchanan 7,000 majority. The infamous J. Glancy Jones is running for re-election to Congress. The opposition Republicans, Americans and Anti-Lecompton Democrats have united on Major John Schwartz. Both candidates are stumping the county and speaking twice a day. Schwartz is a tariff and free-soil Democrat. It is believed he will be elected. His meetings are larger and more enthusiastic than Jones' and his friends more active. The defeat of the treacherous, supple Jones would be one of the greatest triumphs of principle ever won in the North over Doughfaceism.

The people of Berks, chiefly of German extraction, like their ancestors who fled from German tyranny and aristocracy, naturally took up the name of Democracy, opposed not so much to the other parties of this country as to the anti-Democratic principles under which they lived and were crushed in the land of their fathers. From the days of Thomas Jefferson, Berks has voted for any body who bore the name of Democrat, by majorities that were appalling to the opposition. Counting upon this stolid, phlegmatic adherence to the party shibboleth, Jones ventured to advocate and indorse the Lecompton swindle; but the last straw broke the camel's back.

The sturdy yeomanry have revolted, and it would seem are about to hurl the thunderbolts of their vengeance at their treacherous representative. May they strike him down, is the wish of all honest men. The election takes place on the 12th inst.

Chicago, St. Paul and Fond du Lac Railroad.

We understand that measures are being taken for a reorganization of the various interests involved in this road, and which look to the early completion of a line second to none other in its importance to Chicago.

The trustees under the 8 per cent. mortgage, which embraces the entire 196 miles of road from Chicago to Oshkosh (a first lien upon that part north of Fond du Lac and the land grant, and second lien upon the part southward from that point to Chicago) have entered into possession, with the assent of the Company, and of a delegated convention of the stockholders residing along the line. A committee of the stockholders has been appointed to confer with the various classes of creditors, with a view to the adoption of some scheme for the amicable and equitable adjustment of all interests.

If a plan of this nature shall be promptly agreed upon and carried into effect, it will not only increase the value of the entire property, promote the interest of creditors as well as of the stockholders, but will afford a most useful example to many other of our Western enterprises involved in similar embarrassment; an example showing how much wiser for all is a prompt reorganization on a basis of mutual conciliation and actual values, than the waste of the common property, which results from any conflict of the parties in interest, bringing with it too often bad administration and delays in getting the unfinished work into a productive condition, besides the direct injuries which the parties find themselves capable of inflicting upon each other. When the reorganization shall have taken place, the enterprise will be in a condition to receive that aid which a line through the fertile valley of the Rock River—the growing interior cities of the north—forming the best communication with Minnesota and the regions of the Northwest, will be entitled to claim from Chicago.

More Heads.

Old Buck seems to have taken off his coat and rolled up his sleeves. From Ottawa, the bloody instrument seems to have glanced across the prairie in the direction of Bloomington. The Pantagraph of the 30th has the following:

WACK! GOES THE AXE!—It was currently reported and generally believed around town yesterday, that at an early hour on that remarkably fine and pleasant morning, the official head of our worthy and respected Postmaster tumbled into the bloody basket under the Executive guillotine.

Mr. George D. McElhiney has held the office of Postmaster of Bloomington for about five years, having been appointed by the then Postmaster General, in the reign of Franklin the First, and afterwards re-appointed by Franklin himself, some two years ago, when the Bloomington office, by virtue of its increase of business and emoluments, rose to the dignity of an office within the direct gift of the President. * * *

We are not, of course, sufficiently initiated in Democratic secrets to say exactly what Mr. McE.'s standing in the party has been since he has held the appointment. He was present as a "delegate" at both the Buchanan State Convention of June last, and the Buchanan 3d District Convention of September. But it is rumored that somebody breathed into the Presidential ear the insinuation that these acts of fealty were only extorted by the fear of the guillotine, and that our Postmaster was yet at heart an unconverted Douglasite. "Off with his head; so much for Bloomington;" remarked our venerable and beloved Chief Magistrate, and the head came off accordingly.

To murmur at this afflictive dispensation might seem hardly consistent with the intense devotion which every citizen "ort ter" feel for the venerable, &c., President, and so we won't murmur. If we have dropped "some natural tears" over the headless corpse of our late Postmaster, we promise to wipe them as soon as may be. And we presume that our Douglas friends have become so schooled in afflictions of this nature lately, that they will receive this Executive chastisement as meekly as they have received those which preceded it.

LATER.—The Peoria Transcript of yesterday contains the following:

National Democratic stock were up several hundred per cent. yesterday afternoon, and Douglas worshipping stock went down to zero, and the whole speculation nearly collapsed. It was rumored in the streets, and the rumor was speedily confirmed, that Major Sweat had been gored by the terrible horns of Old Buck—that his official head had been lopped off—and that Major Raney had been appointed to the office of Postmaster of Peoria.

A gentleman from Bloomington, yesterday, informed us that the news reached there just before he left that the Postmaster of that city had been removed, and that great excitement prevailed. We presume the Galesburg Postmaster is among the number who have been decapitated.

To the Republicans of the West Side:

Whereas the action of the late Republican Convention has deprived the West Division of a candidate for Representative in the Legislature, and as we believe this has been accomplished by the Republicans of the North and South Divisions in their action and influence in getting up the delegation from the West Division—therefore we, the undersigned, ask all Republicans from the West Division who feel that our rights have not been respected, to meet at West Market Hall, at 3 o'clock P. M., on Saturday, the 2d of October, to investigate the matter and take such action as becomes honest Republicans and Free Men.

Republican Demonstration at Rock Island—A Great Crowd—Immense Enthusiasm.

The Republicans were in great force at Rock Island on Thursday, to hear Senator Trumbull give the coup de grace to Douglas Democracy. The Commercial estimates the number at 5,000. The delegations formed in procession at 10 A.M. and marched through the principal streets with banners and music. Thirty-two young men on horseback, each bearing a beautiful flag with the name of a State printed upon it, were in the procession, besides a large number of others who were on horseback, but not representing any particular State. The procession reached nearly the whole length of Illinois street, which is about two miles.

A salute of thirteen guns was fired at half-past one o'clock, after which Mr. Trumbull took the stand, and after the cheers had subsided: addressed the large assembly in his usually effective style. Senator Rusch, of Iowa, then made a speech in German.

In the evening there was a grand torchlight procession, led by Storm's splendid brass band from Davenport. The mottoes upon some of the Rock Island banners were very significant. They are thus described by the Commercial:

The first exhibits Douglas bound for the White House by the Northern route, on a white horse labeled "Popular Sovereignty." The next, "For the White House by the Southern route." Douglas is bound for the White House on a black horse, marked "Dred Scott." The next is—Douglas attempts it by both routes, one foot on "Dred Scott," and the other on "Popular Sovereignty." The result is, he is thrown, and in falling utters the exclamation, "My last Hope." On this banner are the words, "Douglas, March 4th, 1859, "Douglas Meets with Obstacles in his Equestrianism."

The next shows Douglas with a pair of shears, cutting the clause from the Toombs bill, with the inscription, "For particulars, see Trumbull's Chicago and Alton speeches."

Another motto, with considerable point, exhibits Douglas attempting to bring Lincoln to his milk, in his Ottawa speech. The inscription is, "Small Giant at Ottawa, makes a slight mistake in the sex."

Another banner bears the words, "Small Giant at Jonesboro discovers his mistake," wherein a mad bull is chasing Douglas, when he turns and yells at him, "You are an Abolitionist."

Another motto describes "How Douglas swallowed Dred Scott at Chicago," the painting exhibiting Douglas trying to gulp down a large pig.

At Freeport he vomits up Dred Scott, and the pig, labeled "Dred Scott," is doing his best to get away from Douglas.

MOLINE BANNERS.

The first, "We will subdue you," with a pistol, a knife, a cane, and a barrel of whisky painted on the banner, underneath which are the words "Democratic Arguments."

The next banner said, "We will not be subdued," with a large eagle and the words "Free Institutions" painted on the banner.

Attached to the Moline Band wagon were the words "We pull for Lincoln—We pull for Farnsworth."

The Moline delegation turned out well, and made a fine appearance. Mr. Abbott was the Marshal, and the delegation was accompanied by a fine brass band, led by Mr. A. O. Whitcomb.

EDGINGTON.

The Edgington people turned out well, and their delegation was a large one.

The following are some of their mottoes:

"The Constitution and the Union; we won't secede and you shan't."

Another—"Our fathers did battle for freedom in 1776, so do we in 1858."

EDGINGTON DELEGATION.

"Our country always before our party."

One of the Edgington banners was decorated with a train of cars, which say: "Clear the track for Freedom." On the track it meets an ox team, marked Douglas and Dyer, drawing a cart, upon which the devil rides, and says, as the cars are swiftly advancing: "Massa, I belebe we's in danger."

After marching through the principal streets, the procession adjourned to the Court House Square, when the Hon. J. F. Farnsworth made a powerful speech, and was followed by Mr. Olshausen, in German. Hon. Jo. Knox also made a short but pithy speech. Altogether the demonstration seems to have been one of the most enthusiastic and effective of the campaign.

Death of Hon. Cyrus G. Simons.

We are pained to learn that Hon. Cyrus G. Simons, of Union County, died at his residence in Jonesboro' on the 28th ult. His disease was congestion of the brain. Mr. Simons was a lawyer by profession; he was a member of the House of Representatives in 1850-'51, and was for some years editor of the Jonesboro Gazette. He was a gentleman of unimpeachable integrity, of pure and upright life, enterprising and public-spirited. His loss will be deeply felt by his large circle of friends.

Jersey County.

JERSEYVILLE, Sept. 25, 1858.

Editors Press and Tribune:

The Hon. Lyman Trumbull delivered a very effective speech in this town on Monday last, to a large crowd. It inspired the Republicans to renewed exertions, while it threw a bombshell into the ranks of the Douglas worshippers. Old Jersey promises to do better at the coming election than the most sanguine had anticipated. We shall give over 500 majority for the Republican State ticket. S.

Mr. Blair's Appointments in Wisconsin.

Hon. Francis P. Blair, Jr., of Missouri, will address the citizens of Racine on Monday, the 4th inst., and the citizens of Milwaukee on Tuesday, the 5th. Hon. Isaac N. Arnold, of this city, has a dispatch from Mr. Blair to the above effect.

Rockford District.

The Belvedire Standard of the the 28th ult., says:

The Senatorial Convention for this district, which met at Rockford last week, nominated Zenas Applington, of Ogle, for that post. Mr A. is said to be a man of sound judgment and unblemished character, and will undoubtedly fill the post with credit to himself and honor to the district.

Second Congressional District.

B. F. Blackburn, Esq., of this city, was nominated for Congress by the Buchanan District Convention, at Dixon, on Thursday.

De Witt County Fair.

The annual Fair of De Witt County will be held at Clinton, October 5th, 6th and 7th. The annual address will be delivered on the 7th at 2 P. M., by Hon. M. L. Dunlap, of Urbana.

AN OMNIBUS STRAW.—Editors Press and Tribune:—I was an eye witness to the following pleasant and significant little incident, which fully sustains the truth of the saying, "Straws show which way the wind blows." Charley O'Malley, the renowned stone-breaker, with two of his trusty followers, stepped into one of the Clark street omnibuses, and after taking a seat, feeling, I suppose, in high humor, proposed to take a vote for U. S. Senator. The result was 8 for Lincoln, himself and his two friends, in all 8 for Douglas. Charley sat down and kept mum for the rest of that trip. Upon leaving, he was asked whether he ever took a vote in Bridewell, but whether he modestly declined answering or did not hear the question, is unknown to writer. By giving this an insertion in the columns of your valuable paper, you will oblige A GERMAN REPUBLICAN.

Military and Indian Affairs.

LEAVENWORTH, K. T., Sept. 28.—Four companies of the 1st cavalry, under the command of Maj. Sedgwick, arrived from the Cheyenne expedition yesterday. The 6th Infantry was passed at Soda Springs, 133 miles west of Bridge's, August 31st, making good progress.

The Delaware Indians held a council on their reserve, Aug. 26th, to consider the practicability of an abandonment of their organization as a tribe and adopting the customs of the whites, and becoming citizens of the United States.

Yellow Fever at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, 30th.—Deaths by fever yesterday, 53.

☞ The Postmaster General has announced that "supplements" or "extras" folded within regular issues of daily or weekly journals—not actual and bona fide editions of such publications, conveying intelligence of passing events and general intelligence, will subject the whole package to letter postage.

☞ The Bank of the Republic now located at McLeansboro, in this State, is about to be removed to La Salle, where the proprietors are erecting, for the accommodation of the institution, an elegant marble front building, three stories high.

The circulation of the WEEKLY PRESS AND TRIBUNE has gone up to Twenty Thousand, and the cry is "still they come." No paper in the whole West approaches this circulation.

GRAND REPUBLICAN RATIFICATION MEETING AT WEST MARKET HALL, Saturday, October 2d, 1858, at half-past seven o'clock, P. M. The meeting will be addressed by the Hon. F. P. Blair, of St. Louis; Hon. John Wentworth, Hon. Francis A. Hoffman, Ebenezer Peck, Casper Butz, Van H. Higgins, S. L. Baker, Hon. I. N. Arnold, Hon. Wm. B. Egan, Hon. N. B. Judd and others.

Rally! Rally!!

☞ The Comet was out in unclouded brightness, last evening, with a tail as long as Cobb's who "writes for the New York Ledger"

THE TURF.—Sporting men are rejoicing in the fact that the celebrated mare, Flora Temple, will arrive here to-day, to try her speed on the Garden City Course on the 11th of October.

EXAMINATION OF FEMALE TEACHERS.—W. H. Wells, Esq., Superintendent of Public Schools, announced that there will be an examination of Female Teachers at the office of the Board of Education, No. 64 Lake street, on Wednesday, October 6th, commencing at 9 o'clock, A. M.

THE BRIGHAM CASE.—Charles B. Brigham arrested on Thursday under circumstances and on charges named yesterday, was examined yesterday before Justice Stickney, and as the result dismissed on the more serious charge of rape. He was fined $100 for improper and indecent liberties as alleged. He appealed the case and was held in $200.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.—The First Presbyterian Church, whose pulpit is vacated by the call of Rev. Dr. Curtis to Knox College, have as yet no decisive result in the matter of securing a pastor, and an invitation has been extended to and accepted by Rev. S. S. Smith, of Warren, Mass., to assume the pastoral charge temporarily, for which purpose Mr. Smith will for a time be absent from his own parish as above.

BROUGHT BACK FROM ST. LOUIS.—A few days since officer I. H. Williams brought back to this city from St. Louis where he was arrested, a young man named Philmont, implicated in several larceny cases here. The case will be examined to-day. Philmont is a pal or associate of the notorious young Butler, and the ends of justice will be admirably answered by the location of the two at Alton or Joliet. The father of Philmont, deceased not long since in this city, was a penitentiary convict, and of no great repute.

REMOVAL.—Messrs. E. K. Willard & Young have taken possession of their elegant banking office in Loomis' new marble building, on the corner of Clark and South Water streets. Messrs. W. & Y. have now one of the finest business locations in our city, fitted up with all the appliances taste or convenience could suggest or demand. Messrs. C. L. Harmon & Co., Herring's agents in this city, have just procured expressly for them one of Herring's celebrated safes, of the largest size and best finish—quite a small office in itself.

A CHICAGO ART GALLERY.—Visitors at the late Mechanics' Institute Fair could not fail to be struck with the variety and excellence of the photographs of Messrs. Alschuler & Florence, in all styles of art.

At their rooms, No. 142 Lake street, their display shows that that on exhibition at the Fair was no made-up holiday show. The skilful pencil and excellent skill of Wallis is there being daily employed on large-size photographs, uniting the warmth and life-like appearance of the limner's art with the fidelity to outline and figure inseparable from photographs.

All sizes, varieties, and styles of pictures are secured to their patrons, in every department of photography.

SOMETHING NEW IN MUSICAL MATTERS.—The music lovers of our city are familiar with what the Chicago Musical Union has done in the past, without being reminded by us of its achievements. It demonstrated the possibility of oratorio performances in our city, and is at work with the intention of giving us another oratorio performance during the coming winter. But what we particularly wish to call attention to now is the proposal to add a new feature to its strength and usefulness, which, if carried out with the success that usually attends its efforts, will be of great importance to our city. A committee, we learn, was appointed at its last meeting, to report next Monday evening on the practicability of establishing a department of instruction under the supervision of the Society, in which persons possessing musical talent may obtain the elementary drilling necessary to make them ready readers of music, and to afford such other facilities for musical culture as the interests of our city from time to time seem to demand. We hope this feature may be adopted. Who knows but that it may some day grow into a Musical Conservatory?

BURGLARIES—AGAIN AND YET AGAIN.—Bloggs—Bucephalus Bloggs, a comfortable and usually cheerful dealer in butter and lard, the gentle, oleaginous properties of which commodities seem to have pervaded both his temper and his system, until he might sit for the Cheeryble Brothers, two volumes in one, came into our sanctum promptly upon reading our reference to burglars in yesterday's issue.

He was excited, was Bloggs, and he plied his beaded forehead with his bandana, and ourselves the while with questions. Were our statements true? Are the burglars about? Any new ones, eh? What is to be done? These and more interrogatories by the excited Bucephalus, and we waited for him to conclude, then took up the tale as he left it.

Our statements were true, though but half told. We have more to chronicle, as elsewhere.

Bloggs asked "What is to be done?" and our public are asking the same.

It is evident that this city is infested by a numerous herde of knaves who probably without much concert, and many of them without much skill are busy at burglary in all its forms. It is bad now, but it will be worse. The hard hand of the financial pressure has driven many young men not rooted and grounded in honesty, from the workshop and the manufactory, and from honest employment in general, to join the ranks of the harpies who prey upon the public peace. The panic has swelled the number of thieves, burglars, and pick-pockets, and as the season advances, we may expect more and more annoyance.

The coming winter will inevitably be throughout the country, a season of business stagnation, and will bring in its train the evils of incendiarism and crimes of all the degrees incident to the knave's teaching, "The world owes me a living."

Something must be done to give our citizens and their property greater security. We need the continuance of the heavier freight matters of police business, the drayage of drunken men and women, the sweeping and purging of the dens of vice and infamy. We need to have side-walks respected, cess pools respectable, and stove-pipes safe. These are all useful and honorable, and may be executed well, and are executed well by men from whom it would be as reasonable to expect acute and keen detective service, as to hope for a Rarey in every stable boy.

We need sharp, vigilant, faithful detective service, an eye that never sleeps at night on guard in the streets. We need the service of our detectives at home. The public will believe that a "bird in the hand is worth two in the bush," and that a burglar arrested in the act, in Chicago, is worth half a score ever so keenly "spotted" at a distant State Fair, when the professional interviews thus sought a la distance, are about equally valuable, the knaves enjoying comfortable facilities for spotting detectives for future reference and avoidance. Will our city detectives remain in Chicago and attend to their duties.

Again, we need a temporary, at least, large accession to our detective force.

We have Chicago detectives of world-wide fame, let each and all be put in the service of the city, and a rivalry excited to tell for the benefit of our citizens. Would it not be well to devote three months to a vigorous thief and burglar hunt here, and thus render Chicago too hot to hold the hordes that now infest this community. Private police will do much, but the city government, vigorously and intelligently at work to carry out the very purpose of its existence, the protection of the public, will do even more.

THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R. LAND SUIT.

CONCLUSION OF THE TESTIMONY.

The Arguments Commenced.

IN THE U. S. CIRCUIT COURT—HON. JOHN McLEAN, PRESIDING JUDGE—HON. THOMAS DRUMMOND, ASSOCIATE.—Geo. C. Bates vs. Ill. Central Railroad Co.—Our report of this important case in our yesterday's issue was brief, from the similarity of the proceedings and testimony on Thursday to that on the day previous, being chiefly the testimony of older residents as to the original locality of the mouth of the river, &c.

Yesterday's proceedings concluded the case for the plaintiff at an early hour, by the introduction of a few more witnesses. Morgan Shepley, John R. Livingston, E. H. Haddock, E. I. Tinkham, J. R. Hanchett, J. B. F. Russell and J. M. Parker were successively called and examined to localities, &c., when the plaintiffs rested their case.

The defendants by Mr. Joy presented in evidence to show abandonment of title documents as follows:

Copy of agreement between George C. Bates, plaintiff in the present case, Coggeswell Green, John A. Will, et. al., in relation to this suit.

Also one between Bates and C. H. McCormick of similar nature.

Two contracts executed between Bates and Messrs. Averill Armstrong of New York city, assignees of Moore, one a quit claim to title for the sum of $8, and the other between the same as to division contingent to the result of the present suit.

McLean, as counsel for plaintiff, objected to the documents, and decision by court, was referred until the opening of the afternoon session.

The title of the Ill. Central R. R., under grant of General Government, was also introduced.

Thomas Dyer was put upon the stand to testify to the locality being an open roadstead at the time of occupation and improvement by the Railroad Company.

Capt. J. D. Webster, testified to the same effect.

The Court, in opening the afternoon session, ruled out the three first documents of the morning as not tending to show abandonment.

Mr. Joy introduced in evidence the schedule and list of sale of property of Moore, showing the consideration paid by the plaintiff in the case for the title was eight dollars.

Also, a deed of the United States Government to Illinois Central Railroad, dated Oct. 14, 1852, signed by the Secretary of War, for a portion of the land in controversy, as part of Fort Dearborn Reservation. Objected to by opposing counsel, but overruled, the deed being admitted subject to future argument.

[Here Colonel Graham rose in court to correct the report of his testimony on Thursday by the Times' reporter, in his yesterday's issue, which the Colonel proceeded to do in detail, until reminded that the Chicago Times wasn't official in the case, and its reporter was simply human, which closed the episode.]

James Peck, J. M. Kellogg and Osborne Axtell were examined as to depth of water in the locality, etc.

Matthew Laflin testified as to the extinguishment of the shore riparian rights by the Company, with the controversy thereupon.

Here the defendants rested their case, and Mr. McLean as rebutting evidence to the deed of the United States offered in evidence a map showing the boundaries of Fort Dearborn Reservation. And also a Bill in Chancery filed by the United States vs. Beaubien et. al. in 1838, to set aside a pre-emption claim in which the boundaries of the Reservation were given, to show that the land in controversy was no part of it. Objections were made to the latter, but it was admitted, the Court however alluding to the limited authority of the statements as being those of counsel in behalf of clients.

The arguments were then commenced, John A. Wills, Esq., opening for the plaintiff. The case will occupy a day or two of next week.

ALLEN BUTLER ARRESTED.—The young man, Allen Butler, has managed to achieve for himself far more notoriety, after its kind, than usually falls to the name and fame of persons of his age, and is a painful instance of the early development of a perverse and wilful boyhood. With parents in this city highly respected and esteemed, with influences surrounding him that would have placed him in any favorable position whence to work upward to the achievement of honored and useful manhood, his career for a few years past has been one of more than unusual daring in crime. Again and again has he come before our higher courts. He has escaped the penitentiary twice, we believe, on account of not being of age. His latest achievement was one which, if what is alleged be sustained, was one that indicates a veteranship in rascality for a young man hardly of age. It will be remembered that on the 20th of September last, warrants were issued for the arrest of four parties, upon the charge of administering chloroform to a lady passenger upon the Michigan Central Road, and robbing her of baggage checks and some money. Three of the parties were arrested at that time, and held to bail. The fourth, Allen Butler, succeeded in making his escape, and all traces of him were lost.

A few days since, the officers came into possession of a letter, written by him to his wife in this city, and from the post mark upon it, he was found to be at Atalassa, Iowa, about thirty-five miles from Davenport. Officer Asa Williams and Capt. Kennedy left this city on Wednesday night, in search of the fugitive, and were successful in finding him at work in a grist mill at the above place. When arrested, he begged most piteously not to be taken back, and offered a large sum of money to the officers for his liberation. They reached this city yesterday with their prisoner.

Butler will be examined this morning at ten o'clock, before Justice Aiken. We understand that he is implicated in other larceny cases.

AN ITEM OF IMPORTANCE TO PRINTERS.—We have been shown at the Chicago Type Foundry, No. 90 Washington street, a new article of Combination Metal Furniture prepared at that establishment, which the proprietors are just offering to the printing craft.

It is a novelty in its line in this country (though a similar kind of furniture has been in use in England for some years) and is immensely superior to any furniture now in market. We cannot better speak of its merits than to quote from the Company's Circular.

"This Furniture is so arranged in size that any form can be perfectly justified without cutting. It is cast in sections varying from four to fifty lines Pica in length, and from one to ten lines Pica in width—thus saving the continual waste of wood furniture, and its continual swelling and shrinking, while for lightness and durability it must have the approval of all who see it. The pieces are supported by cross-bars, which give great strength with but little weight, and all are cut to correct Pica measure, and fitted correctly."

A price has been put upon the furniture which brings it within the reach of every printer, and we believe that it is cheaper at double its cost than any other, on account of its lightness, leaving out of consideration the facility for obtaining perfect register, and making up forms quickly.

We expect soon to have a font in use in our job rooms, and predict for the future a heavy sale for which it is every way worthy.

We will merely add that it is the result entirely of Chicago enterprise, and we are glad to be assured of the success of the Chicago Type Foundry, and to have this new evidence of its progress as an institution in our city. We have purchased extensively at this establishment and know from experience that the material manufactured and furnished is every way equal to that made at any foundry in the country.

We propose at no very distant day to give our readers a little idea of type-founding as carried on at this establishment.

SOMETHING NEW AND DESIRABLE.—A vast amount of human ingenuity has been devoted to the securing perfection in stoves, of all of which housekeepers and the "rest of mankind" in civilized society are receiving the benefit.

Messrs. A. R. & G. H. Miller of 237 State street are the agents for and are widely introducing here the "Star of the North" Gas Consuming Coal Stove, of which all competent to decide, speak in the highest praise. In the common methods of burning coal, much of the matter that should support combustion passes off by a direct draft in the form of gas. In the above stove by a most simple and and complete arrangement every particle of the gas generated from the coal is burned, the same being enhanced by a cheerful and beautiful glow, almost equalling the brightest wood fire. Now is the time and season for our housekeepers to examine the claims and appreciate the merits of this stove.

THE HOME MARKETS.—What shall we have for dinner? is a great question, and from time to time we take occasion to show inquiring housekeepers and their friends abroad, what there is, and how much it costs.

In substantials, flour, beef, mutton, and similar solids, we may laugh at starvation and challenge the markets of the world. Game comes to us from first hands, but at high rates compared with those of a few years since, owing to the fast expresses and eastern markets.

A few more good butter makers might be accommodated in Illinois and her sister States, and less wheel-grease be the result of our fat pastures, and a few hundred tons of Western cheese annually might be changed for the better.

Fruit is high and scarce, and will be throughout the season. Apples are all apples of discord among housekeepers, who cannot reconcile the toothsome viands to which apples contribute, with the high prices of that fruit. Peaches are out of market nearly, and fortunately they have ceased to tempt the many purchasers they could not win at from six to ten dollars per bushel.

As to the rest, here are "the figures," made up from reliable and well-known dealers:

Two private residences were entered on State street on the same night.

The counting-room of our neighbors of the Journal was entered on the same night, as is believed by some one desirous to ascertain their circulation by counting the newsboys' pennies in the money drawer, at which receptacle the visitors dug for a time with a pair of scissors. The drawer held fast, and there were no returns.

The Tremont House newsroom, under the Tremont House, was entered by means of breaking a pane of glass in the door at about 4½ A. M. yesterday, and $15 in money taken from the money drawer of our friend Ed. Osband.

On Wednesday night a burglar made an attempt to visit John Wright's restaurant, a place very attractive for visits at proper hours of course, but not through rear windows. The family were aroused and the fellow decamped.

The same night the room of Mr. Davol, over the Michigan Central Railroad ticket office, was entered by a scamp who bundled up wearing apparel, &c., ready to depart, but, awaking one of the occupants, was frightened off, leaving his booty.

On Thursday evening before nine o'clock, the premises of J. M. Dake, on Randolph street, near Dearborn, a grocery store, were entered through a window and ransacked, $1 in change being taken from a drawer.

STRUCK BY A FLASH OF ELECTRICITY.—City Marshal Rehm arrested yesterday at a boarding house on Randolph street kept by Mrs. Brown, a young man named Frank Temple, alias Wm. Van Estabrook, alias Newcourt, upon a telegram from Luther A. Ham, Deputy Chief of Police at Boston, charged with stealing $1,200 in that city. The arrest was made in half an hour after the receipt of the dispatch here, the officer finding his man quietly asleep.

The prisoner is eighteen years old. No particulars of the crime are given, He will be sent back to Boston.

POLICE.

At Armory Hall yesterday, the usual number of petty cases was disposed of with others, as follows:

HOUSES OF PROSTITUTION.—The police on Thursday night made descents on two noted houses of prostitution. From one of them, kept by Jane Keegan, on North Market street, were taken four males and four females, all duly fined in yesterday's Police Court.

The other place was the notorious Prairie Cottage, on State street, from which half a score of young men and five prostitutes were taken, all fined in various sums by Justice Akin.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Forney on Lecompton.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28.—In to-morrow's Press will appear an address of some eight columns in length of Forney, in vindication of the principle of Popular Sovereignty and reply to the assaults of the Lecompton organ.

He intended to deliver an address at a public meeting, but a multiplicity of duties here, rendered it impossible. He commences by reviewing the part he took at Tarrytown and the causes which induced him to speak. He alludes to the statement of the Union, denying the conversation which he is represented to have had with the President. He says that not only did the conversation take place but many things were omitted in the Tarrytown speech. Among others, the President said, "If you, Walker and Douglas will unite in the support of my Kansas policy, the people of Kansas will vote at the election on the 21st of December. I know that you have the strong side of this question and that you can carry off the people, but I appeal to you to stand with me, because if I don't adhere to my policy, Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi will probably secede from the Union." A few days after this interview a friend from Southern New York visited Forney at Philadelphia, saying that the President desired him to assure Forney that the President intended to make the Kansas policy a test upon the party and no man would be tolerated by the Administration who did not approve and support it.

Regarding the Union's assertions that Forney's statement of the Cabinet meeting was false, Forney says that the report of the conversation between Walker and the Cabinet was communicated and described by Simon M. Johnson, one of the editors of the Union.

Forney alludes to the Herald's attacks, using not very complimentary language to its editor. He quotes articles in the Herald. During the campaign, Buchanan said to him once, when much excited, "Why am I traduced and pursued by this infamous knave? Have I no friends who will visit New York and punish him as he deserves? His ears should be taken off in the public streets."

Subsequent to the election, Forney published a caustic article about Bennett. Buchanan regretted the publication, saying: "I desire that Bennett shall support the Administration."

Forney then reviews the political condition of the Union, claiming all the Democratic victories in the North, anti-Lecompton, and predicts the overthrow of the President's rule in the coming election in this State.

New York Quarantine Matters.

NEW-YORK, October 1.—The Committee appointed by the Executive Committee of Staten Island on Quarantine matters, to call upon the Commissioners for Quarantine removal, and examine their plan for the construction of floating hospitals, having reported the particulars of their interview, and that they have examined the plans and approve the same, and that the spot selected for these structures is at least two miles from the shore of Staten Island—therefore

Resolved, That this Committee cordially approve of the action of the Commissioners for removal, and of their plans, and will heartily cooperate with them in carrying out the plans reported upon, as far as lies in their power.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Committee, if the plans of the Commissioners for removal are approved by the State authorities, such action will give general satisfaction to the citizens of Staten Island, and will allay all prejudices against the Quarantine institution.

The Young Men for Lincoln.

No fact connected with the present political contest in this State has given us more unmixed gratification than the singular unanimity with which the most of our young men—especially that class of them who are now for the first time about to exercise a freeman's right—have declared for Republicanism and for its able and fearless champion, Abraham Lincoln. The fact is gratifying in itself, but doubly so in consideration of the insidious and extraordinary means resorted to by the leaders of the pro-slavery Democracy to seduce this class of voters from the path of patriotic duty. It is a beautiful order of divine providence that the noblest ideas of excellence inspire the mind and heart at that period of life when the passions are most active and least disciplined by habitual control. The generous impulses of uncorrupted youth, its enthusiastic devotion to whatever is good and noble in itself, hold ardent and impetuous natures in check until sober experience and confirmed habits self-poise and govern them. In the principles advocated by the Republican party as well as in the character, the blameless, upright life, the honesty and sincerity of its chosen champion in this contest, these characteristics find ample exercise and scope. Human freedom, the right of all men to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness"—the grand idea upon which our entire superstructure of republican government rests—free scope for the highest development of man and of society, the gradual dying out of all forms of despotism, the universal recognition of the right of man to himself, to the fruits of his own labor and to the free exercise of his own volition subject only to the rights of others, the right of free labor not to be brought into competition with that which is servile, compulsory and unrewarded—these are principles that arouse and take firm hold of the noblest impulses, that are inseparably connected with our highest ideas of man and of government, and that especially appeal to the sympathies of youth and call forth their noblest efforts.

No man has ever succeeded in demagogic arts who has not had a clear understanding of this principle of human nature and a full appreciation of the importance of acting constantly with reference to it. From Catiline to Douglas, each one of the long list of unscrupulous political adventurers has sought first to win and then corrupt the young men. Presenting their dogmas in a false light, assuming for them results which fire the imagination and enlist the ardor of generous natures, they insidiously lead their victims step by step to embrace the vilest doctrines and aid in the unholiest of measures. History furnishes no example of a bolder or more reckless course in this respect than that pursued by Mr. Douglas. In political ethics he has been and still tries to be emphatically a corrupter of the youth. Devoted to the extension and perpetuation of human bondage, he seeks to inspire the belief that he is the champion of Popular Sovereignty. Holding dogmas directly at variance with the underlying principle of free government, and which, if put into practical operation, must divide society into castes and make the physically or intellectually inferior the slaves of those who excel them in these accidents of birth and of culture, he nevertheless claims to march under the banners of democracy and to worship at the shrine of human freedom.

But the great majority of the youth of Illinois now see at a glance through the sophistries of this man, and his present efforts to cajole and deceive them are fruitless. His avowal of Popular Sovereignty in former days seduced many into his support, but his more recent indorsement of the Dred Scott decision which cuts it up by the roots, has undeceived and put them upon their guard. Undazzled by the splendor of his past successes, they now discern with clear and steady vision the traitorous end at which he has been all the time aiming, and their generous natures turn from him and from his cause with the most profound loathing. No wonder, then, that we hear from all parts of the State that the young men are rallying to the support of Republicanism and Lincoln. It is well; for in this instance the path of duty in which they have started will prove to be the surest road to honor.

Chicago Reform School for Boys.

The well intentioned doubts thrown around the experiment inaugurated by Mr. Nichols at the Reform School, ought by this time to be wholly removed. Three years have elapsed since in ruinous, inconvenient and unattractive quarters, stinted in necessaries, and but half supported in his enterprise by the authorities, he undertook the reformation, by the power of kindness alone, of the juvenile vagabonds and petty criminals, gathered from the high-ways and by-ways, the docks, alleys and the prisons, and committed to his charge. Since that day, he has adhered with rigid fidelity, strengthened by his accumulated experiences, to the system which originally formed the basis of his action; and though he commenced without the use of bolts, bars, keepers, guards or any form of duress, and put behind him corporal punishment in all its forms, as unworthy of the age and his humane purpose, his success has been so gratifying that we are proud to record it. It is not to be presumed that every lad who has come under his influence has been thoroughly reformed. Vice has so firmly fixed its impress in some of the youthful minds with which he has had to deal; he has had the management of natures so obstinately warped by hereditary obliquity, that success has been impossible in all cases; but there is not one, subject to his discipline, who has not felt his reformatory power, and who will not go out from the School with the ground work of usefulness and respectability carefully laid. The teacher's work may be destroyed, his maxims forgotten, his kindness and forbearance neglected as rules of action; but it is not too much to say that two years of training and moral and affectional development under Mr. Nichols' pious hands, need only be followed up by influences not absolutely poisonous and destructive, to save all in whom the ordinary sensibilities of our nature remain. The history of the boys who have gone from the School into their appropriate places in the city or country, proves all that we say. We believe that Mr. NICHOLS and the gentlemen of the Board of Guardians, who have, with rare wisdom and patience, supported him in the elaboration of his system, are solving the problem upon which so much labor and time have been vainly spent elsewhere. "What shall we do with, and how shall we treat, juvenile offenders?" need no longer be asked. Do with them as the Board of Guardians of the Chicago Reform School, and Mr. NICHOLS, have done, and the difficulty is at an end.

It is singular that, in this city, where Mammon is worshipped with an intensity of devotion that no religious devotee ever felt, we should be the first, in the treatment of the class of which we speak, to apply that law of love which the Divine Master promulgated, and which, sooner or later, will rule while it blesses mankind. But, among the other unaccountable things of the age, so it is; and while we are proud of the preëminence which this fact alone, when the excitements of to-day, which engross the minds of men, have passed away, will give our city, we must not forget that kindness is not self-sustaining—that the Reform School, to be the means of continued usefulness and continued honor, must be generously upheld. We appeal to the Common Council for its aid until such time as the State shall take it under its protecting and fostering care.

☞ Henry Emerson, a distinguished merchant of Cincinnati, died on Wednesday.

The Huguenots of Illinois.

The Douglas Democracy of Illinois, if we may believe the Chicago Times, are about the worst persecuted race of fine gentlemen—the noblest army of martyrs—in the world. According to that infallible authority they are in the daily receipt of indignities and "outrages" which would put courage into a spaniel or make warriors of spring chickens. Yet so inflexibly are they bent upon peace, good morals, correct habits, observance of the catechism, etc., that they will endure no end of insults—always breathing benedictions on their persecutors. Their fortitude surpasses that of Quakers. They are the Huguenots of the Northwest, of whom Illinois is not worthy.

The Times of yesterday contains a tearful editorial whereof the substance is that Douglas went down to Hennepin to make a speech—had five thousand men to talk to!—spoke about one hour, when Hoyne and Fitch organized a Buchanan meeting somewhere in the neighborhood with only twenty-five listeners, and then sent a band of music to disperse the five thousand—boo-hoo! The five thousand were opposed to any difficulties of a personal nature, and they allowed the "Danites" to go on unmolested and do all the disgraceful things in the dictionary. The most grievous thing of all is that "Mr. ——, of the PRESS AND TRIBUNE," was there; so the Times correspondent writes. This blank newspaper ruffian was evidently at the bottom of all the naughty things done at Hennepin. It is a mark of the forgiving disposition of the Douglasites that they do not publish the name of this fiend and expose him to the indignation of a truth-loving public. Come, now; we are not of that depraved and profligate class of journalists who would tolerate the inhumanity of twenty-five men oppressing five thousand of their fellows in the light of day. Give us the name, and we promise to discharge the wretch forthwith.

But that is not the only case of recent persecution and maltreatment brought to our notice by the Huguenot organ. At Henry, (so we are informed) on the 29th ult., "Fitch, Carpenter, and seven or ten others," set themselves to work to break up a Douglas gathering of "full twenty-five hundred men." They went through various outrageous expedients to accomplish the fell purpose, but the twenty-five hundred "lost none of their equanimity." Certain misty allusions are also made to Urbana and Onarga. The Times says some of the incidents at these places were too indecent to be mentioned. Its readers may well wonder what these things were which were too indecent to be printed in the Times. Doubtless they partook of the character of "Mr. ——," at Hennepin—resembling him in invisibility—or were copied from the doings of the mysterious villain at Freeport, who threw a water-melon at Douglas, "hitting him on one shoulder." In reference to the latter item we have positive assurances that there were no water-melons on the ground at Freeport; that the fellow who threw it aimed it at Lincoln; that it was a green citron and not a water-melon at all; and finally that it hit Douglas on both shoulders.

Does not this mass of testimony go to show that our Huguenots are the worst-abused and most long-suffering people we have any account of? The only wonder is how they venture into the stormy arena of politics at all. If we might advise them we should say: Keep in-doors; every man's house is his castle. If you hear any loud noise in the street, get behind the store or under the bed. Avoid exciting themes of conversation and warm drinks. Read your catechism, and never let the sun go down on your wrath.

The Prospect for Lincoln.

In the outset of this canvass, we resolved to deceive our readers with none of the assurances of success by which partisans too frequently delude their friends; but, on the contrary, to keep them informed of the exact truth, as near as we were able to ascertain it. In pursuance of this plan we have made statements which implied our confident belief in LINCOLN's triumphant election, and as the time of voting draws near, we are constrained to reiterate those statements more emphatically than ever before. We know not what new aspect a month may put upon affairs, but, from present appearances, we are sure that Mr. DOUGLAS is doomed to not only a decisive, but an overwhelming defeat. But let not our friends abate their exertions or moderate their zeal. Our enemies are active, vigilant and boastful, though at heart intimidated. Let them have no breathing spell, but ply them as hotly as ever with argument, proof, demonstration, until the day of voting, and the victory is assuredly ours. Hurra for Lincoln!

The Wagon Boy on the Stump.

According to the Ohio papers, Tom Corwin is cracking his whip to some purpose in Central and Southern Ohio. On the 11th ult. he spoke at Byron to an attentive audience of 3,000, a sort of basket harvest home combined with a political meeting. On the 14th the Governor addressed 2,500 at Circleville; on the 15th, 2,000 at Zanesville, on the 16th, 3,000 at Newark; and on the 17th, 3,000 at Mount Vernon. He also has addressed large meetings at Xenia, London, Morrow, Portsmouth, Piqua, Sidney, Greenville, Lancaster, &c., and his appointments for the present week are at Dayton, Monroe, Germantown, Lima, etc. Last week he was sick, and only spoke at Xenia. Everywhere Gov. Corwin has been received with enthusiasm, and has been heard with deep attention. He is roused to the importance of the contest, and at Xenia after speaking of the Dred Scott Decision as interpreted by Mr. Buchanan to mean that "Kansas was as much a slave State as Georgia," said:

"If that decision is to be carried out, and the Territories are thus to be inoculated with Slavery, and under this unfair influence, a State is formed with a slave Constitution, and comes before me for admission, I will never vote for it! NEVER! NEVER! NEVER! You may roast me alive, I haven't much fat, but it shall be all tryed off before I will vote to admit a Slave State under such circumstances."

At the conclusion of the address an old man in the audience who had voted for Birney in 1844, rose and said:

"Mr. Corwin, if you were up for President instead of member of Congress, I would vote for you. The Governor did not hear him, and asked him to repeat his remark. He accordingly did so.

"May the Lord help you," was the reply, "though I may say you might go further and fare worse."

Gov. Chase has just been making a tour through the North-west, and addressing large audiences with fine effect.

Governor Morrill's majority, 8,842.

Both the doubtful Congressional Districts prove Republican. Foster's majority in the 6th being 137, and French's, in the 3d, being 56. This makes the Delegation unanimous. The Legislature stands—

Senate—31 Republican.

House—103 Republicans, 45 Democrats.

National Bankruptcy.

The government expenditures are at the rate of $2,000,000 per week while the receipts do not exceed $700,000. Another loan of $20,000,000 is already talked of as soon as Congress assembles in December. The indications are that Mr. Buchanan will go out of office leaving behind him a debt of at least a hundred millions of dollars.

Debt of St. Louis.

The latest statement of the consolidated debt of St. Louis sets it down at $5,087,296, on which there is an annual interest of $338,437. The assets of the city, including railroad shares, are $18,996,000.

☞ Jacob Demmart, a German lad who was employed in the San Antonio (Texas) postoffice, was arrested a few weeks ago at Indianola on a charge of having broken open letters and abstracting the contents. He was on his way to New Orleans when taken, and had on his person $10,000 of drafts.

To the People of Illinois.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 27, 1858.

Editors Press and Tribune:

The people of the State of Illinois are about being robbed of their sovereignty. They are in imminent peril of being cheated out of their rights by hordes of leagued ruffians and banded rogues, who are now congregating in the central part of Illinois. Of this there is now no further doubt.

The will of the people is the supreme law, and when organized organic into acts, that popular will is called constitutions—fundamental principles by which to protect and to rule. We call resistance to that organic act—to those fundamental principles—by force or conspiracy, treason; because the acts strike at the roots of government, and the radical principles of all fundamental rights, individual, social and political. A man who resists these constitutions, by force or conspiracy, is called a traitor, and is an outlaw, and death is the penalty; and, at common law, was followed by confiscation of his estate, and the attainder of his blood.

The popular will is the supreme law, and it should be in all republics and democracies. The people must have their constitutions protected; and to do this, their choice of men to interpret, execute the law, and to rule, is and ought to be as sacred as their embodied will in constitutions. Both are the embodiment of the great people's will. It is through individuals that thoughts, ideas and principles are organized. The choice of men is the sacred right of men. Whoever rebels against constitutions is a traitor—a legal traitor; and whoever fraudulently cheats the people of their choice of men is a moral traitor and political outlaw.

I ask all honest men if this is not so, and should it not be so; and to which all men answer, "Yes!" Then let us look the facts which I shall detail right in the face—in the eyes.

I have lately been in the counties of Macon, De Witt and Logan, and have noticed things carefully, and especially the Buffalo Irish. You, Messrs. Editors, gave the warning to our people. You told us that we, the people of Illinois, were to be overrun by the wandering Ishmaelitish Irish, and that the people would be robbed of their rights, and defrauded out of their sovereignty—cheated out of their choice of men, measures, and those fundamental principles of right that underlie all constitutions. Those warnings are now known to be true, and they happen as follows, namely: Several drunken, dirty, ignorant Democratic Irish will come along down the railroads, in emigrant or cattle cars, and get off at way stations, and then go about in and over the country hunting work, or rather pretending to do so; they all, somehow or other, want to "cut corn," and that only for five or six weeks. Whoever heard of Irishmen before in herds, or otherwise, going about hunting up the glorious privilege of "cutting corn!" They are tested in this way: "Michael O'Flaherty, I want to hire you under conditions, and at $25 per month, and if you leave before the end of your time, no pay." The traitor shrugs his shoulders, and departs. So, Messrs. Editors, you see fraud, do you not, in all this?

The railroad or company, the party or association of men or individuals, who send these Irish down into the central part of Illinois for the only and express purpose of outriding, overriding, or outvoting the honest citizens of Illinois, takes away from the people of Illinois the popular will, and is a traitor and an outlaw, and should be so held by all men. It is true that there may be no law to meet this moral wrong—this moral treason; yet it is no less treason than if there was a law. We shall so hold it. We in Illinois shall hold all engaged in it as traitors—outlaws. Let the disgrace be on their heads. We in the central part of Illinois intend to let every man who is legally and constitutionally entitled to a vote, vote, and act as a citizen; but, at the same time, we are determined—we are sworn, as good law-abiding citizens, to prevent the non-citizen—those not entitled to a vote—to cheat the people out of their honest popular will. We intend to keep the ballot-box pure; we intend to protect the honest popular will, and the laws and Constitution, let come what may; and if the blood of American citizens is shed on the day of election, commingled on the clods with the fraudulent, traitorous Irish, let the fault, wrong, crime, if it is, be laid at the doors and feet of the outlawing Irish, and the abetting American, who struggles through fraud to cheat his own blood—his own laws and Constitution—out of the rights and spirit belonging to all. I say we are determined to see honesty, fair play, and the legal popular will obeyed.

The American citizen has stood wrong and fraud on the ballot-box—the popular will—long enough. There is a point beyond which forbearance ceases to be a virtue, and that point is now reached. Let the traitors, let outlaws, stand from under.

JUSTICE.

Lovejoy at Middleport, Onarga and Kankakee.

[Correspondence of the Press and Tribune.]

KANKAKEE, Sept. 30, 1858.

We had a glorious time at Middleport on Wednesday and at Kankakee to-day at Lovejoy's meetings. The turnout at Middleport was the largest I have seen since 1840, and by far the most enthusiastic gathering of this campaign in our part of the county. One delegation alone came in from a distance of over thirty miles with over eighty teams, mostly four and six horses, with banners and devices almost without number. The delegation from Onarga that escorted Mr. Lovejoy over, was composed of some forty teams. The little town of Middleport literally swarmed with live Republicans. The speech of Mr. Lovejoy was unsurpassable, and carried the crowd along in a perfect storm of enthusiasm from the beginning to the end. In the evening Mr. Lovejoy spoke to a fine audience at Onarga, and in the morning started for Kankakee, where he arrived at 9 A. M. When Mr. Douglas came into Kankakee on Saturday, after all the labor of two weeks in organizing committees and making arrangements for his reception, he was met by perhaps in all fifty or sixty persons, and escorted on foot to the Murray House. When Mr. Lovejoy arrived yesterday morning he was met by a crowd of friends, and carried to the Murray House in a carriage, with a band of music in advance, and a procession of twenty-five or thirty carriages following, with the heads of the horses of each decorated with banners bearing the inscription: "Kankakee County 1200 majority for Liberty, Lincoln and Lovejoy." The meeting in the afternoon was at least twice as large as the one addressed by Mr. Douglas on the preceding Saturday, and more than two hundred thousand million times as enthusiastic—that is as near as I can compare it—the one being in point of temperature in a state that would have frozen carbonic acid gas, and the other beyond the registering point of any thermometer of this age. In the evening a torch-light procession escorted Mr. Lovejoy to the cars, and the entire street and vacant space about the station-house was a dense mass of Republicans; (I do not think there were any Democrats left after Lovejoy's speech); and the darkness of the evening was illuminated with the glare of 500 torches, and the stillness of the evening air disturbed by almost one continued shout of "Hurrah for Lincoln," "Hurrah for Lovejoy," for the half hour during which we were waiting for the cars. It is no use to talk about the 3d District; the Democratic element in it is not greater than the quantity of a medicinal extract contained in the thirtieth homœopathic dilution.

Boone County Fair.

The Boone County Fair will be held at Belvidere the 6th, 7th and 8th of October. There will be excursion trains run on the Galena and Chicago Union Railroad from the East and West. On Thursday, the 7th, the annual address will be delivered by the Hon. JAMES R. DOOLITTLE, of Wisconsin, and the ladies will ride on horseback for premiums on Friday afternoon. There will also be a grand display of fire works on the evening of the 7th. Premiums for stock will be awarded on Friday, the 8th. A grand military parade will take place on the 7th and 8th, at which time the "Highland Guard," of Chicago, will be present and participate with the "Boone Rifles." Belvidere is but a few hours ride from Chicago, and to the excursionist, will be a pleasant trip, and richly compensate for all time and expense. It is proposed to have this Fair the most attractive one ever held in Boone county.

Midnight Parade of the Sons of Malta.

The Cincinnati Commercial gives a graphic description of a midnight parade of some five hundred of the Sons of Malta in that city on Wednesday night. The various branches of the order were in full costume, bearing plumes, helmets, swords and other insignia. We quote:

The solemnity of midnight; the awe of darkness and profound stillness; the reticence of the seemingly animated human automatons whose facial features were closely imprisoned by impenetrable black cowls; the slow, measured, stately tread of the men; the mournful swell of the dirge by which they marched; the ghostly uniforms and frightful masks; the profound mystery which enveloped them as with a veil of impervious darkness; the associations connected with them, all conspired to constitute the parade equally interesting and extraordinary. It seemed to some as if the demons of the ancient Inquisition had revisited earthly scenes to fright the soul into pious confessions of unacted guilt. To facetious minds it presented features provocative of boisterous mirthfulness.

D. L. Phillips on the Stump in Egypt.

[Correspondence of the Press and Tribune.]

GRAYVILLE, White Co., Sept. 26, 1858.

As a friend of your paper and a supporter of the Republican cause, permit me to send you a brief report of the canvass in this section of the State, away down here in lower Egypt.

On Tuesday last our candidate for Congress, Mr. D. L. Phillips, of Jonesboro, Union county, paid us a visit. He is a fine looking man, intelligent and agreeable in his manners, and, in fact, a very fine specimen of a "Black Republican," as the Douglasites call all men opposed to slavery extension and aggression. It was announced that he would address us last evening. We had only one day's notice of his coming, but a very respectable audience assembled at the Methodist Church, filling the building comfortably full. The speech was a most agreeable surprise to our citizens. It was a lucid exposition of Republican principles; there was no rant or fustian—no slang or blackguardism toward opponents, such as the Douglasites employ. Never did I listen to a stump speech attended by such immediate, general and gratifying results. "Well, if this is Republicanism, I am a Republican from this day forward," said an old man who has voted a straight Democratic ticket for twenty-five years. "I did not know that the Republicans held such doctrines;" "I thought they were in favor of negro equality, and wanted to turn the slaves loose upon community;" was the remark on all sides among the Democrats. Such had been the effects of our opponents' vulgar abuse against our side. Our only regret is, that the very brief notice of his coming prevented a larger attendance of the people. We hope he will visit us again. From here Mr. Phillips went to Carmi, where he addressed the people at the Court House, giving great satisfaction to all honest and fair-minded men. He has some other appointments in our county which he will fill this week.

This district gave Buchanan a larger majority than he received in any other north of Mason and Dixon's line. Our candidate for Congress in '56 was beaten by over ten thousand votes. But the 3d of November next will tell a different tale. We shall melt down the majority of '56 below five thousand; we hope to do much better than that. One thing you may depend on, viz: the Republican State ticket will poll a larger vote than ever was cast for the opposition in the Ninth District. Whether we shall be able to elect any members of the Legislature remains to be seen, but we shall do our best. The light is shining into the dark places of Egypt, and the clouds of error and prejudice are passing away.

EGYPT.

Adams County Fair.

[Correspondence of the Press and Tribune.]

QUINCY, Ill., Sept. 29th, 1858.

The first day of the Adams County Agricultural and Mechanical Association's sixth annual Fair has just closed. The Fair opened this morning with a plowing match—the first one ever held in the county. The farmers did not seem to take much interest in the match, and only eleven teams were entered. This being the first plowing match I ever attended, I hope it will be the last one I may attend and see so few farmers on the ground to participate, and see and compare notes with each other in regard to what is good plowing and how it is done. The premium for best plowing was awarded to Charles Menn, who entered the black ponies owned by K. K. Jones, of whom some of your readers may have "heard on." Now "K." is modest and not a bit noisy (?)—you know that; and his forty acre farm will be room enough to hold him until morning. But "Charley," his man, is tickled, pleased, glad! and declares he feels richer than if he had made a hundred dollars by the operation. The plowing with the Michigan double plows gave great satisfaction, and opened the eyes of such of our old fogies as were present to the importance of deep plowing.

The Fair grounds are about one mile south of the square, in a beautiful location, and well fitted up with conveniences of all kinds. A fine track gives a good chance for the fast nags, and makes a lovely drive for carriages, as you have a view of the mighty Mississippi, fine groves and delightful dells; besides, the buildings and stalls are so located that a very good view of the whole can be obtained from a carriage while coursing around the track.

The crowd to-day has been quite large—say four thousand—but to-morrow will be the grand show and big rush. The military were on the ground to-day, and made a fine display. Quincy has just cause to be proud of her citizen soldiery. The fire department parade to-morrow. No city of its size has a better fire department than Quincy. Her military and firemen are A No. 1, any how you take them.

I will give you a full description of the principal features of the show of to-morrow in my next.

Yours, MCGUIRE.

SERMONS TO THE CHURCHES. By FRANCIS WAYLAND. Published by Sheldon, Blakeman & Co., New York. Sold by Wm. B. Keen, Chicago.

Dr. Wayland is too well known to the churches and to the reading public to require any formal introduction to either. His "Moral Science" is a text-book in most of the colleges in the country, and he has long presided over Brown University with distinguished honor. The discourses embraced in the present volume are marked by the author's usual force of statement and admirable transparency of style, and will no doubt give great satisfaction to the class of readers to whom they are addressed. Their design, he says in the preface, is "to urge upon individual Christians the duty of personal effort for the conversion of men, and a more consistent and uncompromising profession of religion."

THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF EDUCATION. Published quarterly. Edited by Henry Barnard, LL.D. No. for September. Published by F. C. Brownell, Hartford and New York.

The present number of this interesting publication is principally made up of well-written memoirs of men who have been distinguished by their efforts in the cause of Education, and of those who have exhibited in their lives some of its ripest fruits. The text is illustrated by some half-dozen well executed portraits. Besides the memoirs, there are papers entitled "Public Instruction in Saxony," "Female Education," the "History of Yale College," etc. The great variety of personal reminiscences embraced in the volume, told as they are in charming style, render the memoirs exceedingly interesting.

RELIGIOUS ASPECT OF THE AGE; with a Glance at the Church of the Present and the Future. Published by Thatcher & Hutchinson, New York. Sold by Wm. B. Keen, Chicago.

The volume consists of a series of addresses delivered before the Young Men's Christian Union of New York by Samuel Osgood, D. D., E. H. Chapin, D. D., Henry W. Bellows, D. D., Rev. B. F. Barrett, and some half-dozen other distinguished clerical gentlemen, and including one by Horace Greeley. The names given are a sufficient guaranty that it is worth reading.

HUNT'S MERCHANTS' MAGAZINE FOR OCTOBER.

The number opens with an instructive paper upon "Migration from Europe to the United States," which is followed by one upon "Commercial Colleges," embracing many valuable suggestions. There is also a paper upon the Commerce of Chicago, made up chiefly of statistics which have already appeared in the columns of the PRESS AND TRIBUNE, besides the usual variety. The Magazine does not seem to have suffered in the value of its matter since the death of Mr. Hunt.

Church Scandal—Bishop Doane and the Rev. Mr. Carden.

We published a few days since, as part of the news of the day, an admonition from the Right Rev. the Bishop Doane, of New Jersey, addressed to a Rev. Mr. Carden, of Philadelphia, who, as we gather from the Bishop's statement of the case, was guilty of an "act of misbehavior" in inviting a Methodist minister to assist him in administering the Communion, in the Diocese of New Jersey. Mr. Carden does not appear to enter on his justification in Philadelphia, where he resides, but opens his batteries upon the Bishop in the Protestant Churchman, in the following terms:

"Here is a Bishop who was presented for trial by three of his peers, all of unblemished and exalted reputation, under charges of grossly immoral conduct, dishonesty and drunkenness. His accusers declared publicly that they believed him guilty, and stood ready to prove the charges they had brought. He shrunk from an investigation, and by desperate wriggling escaped it, thereby bringing a stigma upon his order.

"This Bishop allows one of his own presbyters in a prominent church in the largest city of his Diocese, to disgrace the Church by intemperance, and raises no voice of rebuke. But lo! a presbyter of another Diocese happens in a place of public resort, on the extreme point, a little spur of the State that forms his Diocese, to commit what at most was but a trifling breach of ecclesiastical order, and out comes a ridiculous and empty interdict.

"We say an empty interdict, for what force will it carry? None whatever. No moral force, for its source and character both preclude that. No legal force, for the day has not yet come when a single bishop can make canons, and execute them. When a bishop becomes such an absolute monarch in his Diocese, that no presbyter can officiate in it in the smallest act without his consent, it will be refreshing to be made aware of it. We doubt not that the Rev. Mr. Carden will treat the affair with the disrespect it so richly merits."

This is pretty severe, and the better to appreciate its full meaning, it may be added that the Protestant Churchman is edited by three eminent clergymen of the Episcopal Church—Rev. Dr. Tyng, Rev. Dr. Anthon and Rev. Dr Canfield.—Evening Post.

FIFTH ANNUAL FAIR OF THE IOWA STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

[Correspondence of the Press and Tribune.]

OSKALOOSA, Iowa, Sept. 28, 1858.

In accordance with previous appointment the Fifth Annual Fair of the Iowa State Agricultural Society is now being held at this place, and a few brief notes of its progress will doubtless prove of interest to the readers of the PRESS AND TRIBUNE.

THE JOURNEY HITHER.

Leaving the Van Buren street depot at 11 o'clock Sunday night, we arrived after a pleasant ride of ten hours at Rock Island. The weather was everything the most fastidious could desire, the moon throughout the night shed a refulgence over the varied landscape now fast assuming its Autumn garb, and everything as we rapidly glided past lent it aid to the perfect realization of the term "delightful." But one incident occurred during the whole trip to disturb the peaceful influences of surrounding nature.

At Annawan, a young man suspected of having appropriated to his own use the substance of another, followed by a deputy sheriff and posse, took the cars. After starting, the latter parties attempted to make the arrest, but having no warrant, the suspected individual refused to submit, and arming himself with a knife, defied the officers to take him. For a long time their ineffectual attempts to make the capture afforded the spectators much amusement, and it was not until the train had reached Geneseo, and a desperate struggle had been passed through, that "Justice triumphed," and with black eyes and bloody faces the belligerents left the cars.

From Rock Island we crossed over without any delay into Davenport by the railroad bridge. The beautiful and picturesque scenery of this vicinity is too well known to bear comment. Suffice it to say that in our opinion, those who have never enjoyed this, one of the choicest spots in the great West, will find its beauties amply to repay a visit.

Leaving Davenport, we traverse prairies in comparison with which those of our own State dwindle into insignificance. From Muscatine our course is nearly due west through a country bearing a striking resemblance in surface, soil and productions to Central Illinois, though far more thinly settled, and this analogy holds good throughout the entire distance to Oskaloosa, 100 miles back from the river. We arrived at Washington, the present terminus of the M. & O. R. R. at 4 P. M. yesterday, and immediately took the stage for Oskaloosa, sixty miles distant. The tedium of this part of the journey can more readily be imagined than described, and right heartily glad were we when, after fourteen hours hard riding, we finally arrived at

OSKALOOSA.

This is the name given to the county seat of Mahaska County, one of the finest portions of the State. Its location is on the edge of a beautiful prairie, stretching away toward the northwest, while on the right hand are the woods, skirting a branch of Skunk River, four miles distant, and on the left and immediately in the rear of the city, another body of timber drained by the Des Moines, which approaches within six miles.

The city is 13 years of age, having been laid off in 1845; it now contains a population of about 3,000. Unlike most towns in the interior not enjoying railway connections, Oskaloosa bears evidence of thrift truly surprising. Blocks of three-storied brick buildings grace the public square, that would ornament a city of far greater pretensions, while many of the private dwellings are not only neat but even handsome. The city contains about ten churches, a college, for which a splendid building is now in process of erection, under the auspices of the denomination known as "Christians," and two newspapers, (weeklies,) all of which institutions testify to the moral and intellectual character of the community. Of course Republicanism predominates in political circles. Within the next year or eighteen months it is confidently expected that the Muscatine and Oskaloosa R. R. will reach this point when the advantages already possessed by the place will without doubt be greatly increased. Another railroad is also projected, making this place a point.

THE FAIR GROUNDS.

The grounds lie about one half mile northwest of the Court House, and consist of eighteen acres of prairie, enclosed by a high board fence. The arena for the exhibition of stock is oval and occupies by far the greater part of the space. The course for trial of speed is one half mile in circuit, and to-day is being well patronized. The buildings are few and low and very open, the impassable state of the roads consequent upon the wet season having occasioned a difficulty in procuring sufficient lumber for more complete accommodations. A very large proportion of the visitors present are farmers with their families from this and the neighboring counties, and most of these have come with wagons bringing their own provisions and bedding. At a rough calculation there must be considerably over a hundred wagons on the grounds. A few booths are on the grounds where board can be had, though very few appear to patronize them. The side shows and swings usually attendant on such gatherings also appear, and the "Good Samaritan" still determines that if people die it shall not be any fault of his stoutly pleading in behalf of his nostrums.

THE FIRST DAY.

The display this morning was very small, but articles and stock have been arriving constantly and the prospect for a full show is now encouraging. Up to this evening 1,009 entries had been made, and it is expected that some further additions will be made to the list to-morrow. The only business transacted to-day besides the recording of entries has been the organization of the different committees. To-morrow the awards are to be made in most of the departments. The weather is remarkably fine, and a pleasant time is looked forward to.

Execution of a Clergyman—Extraordinary Scene on the Gallows.

P. S. Turley, formerly a clergyman, was executed on Friday week in Kanawha County, Va., for the murder of his wife. On the gallows he made a speech, attributing the commission of the crime to his intemperance. The Kanawha Star says:

After speaking, he requested that "Jerusalem, my happy Happy Home," might be sung. He said that many present had sang it with him on more happy occasions. He started the tune himself. While singing, he called his aged father on the platform, threw himself upon his neck, interrupted his singing only long enough to say "farewell," and then continued to take the lead. His mother, with his little daughter, came forward at his request, and he shook hands with her, and took his little one in his arms, kissed it, and all without seeming to be interrupted. So also with a brother. They all left the ground before he fell. He also, while singing, shook hands with some twenty others. Among them two of the brothers of his murdered wife. He had a smile on his face most of the time. There were but a few dry eyes on the ground during the scene. When he ceased singing, he turned about and said, "Sheriff, I am ready to die," and soon after the rope was cut, and the unfortunate man launched into eternity.

General Intelligence.

A BREAK DISCOVERED IN THE ATLANTIC CABLE.—The workmen employed in cutting up the cable in the machine-shop at the Brooklyn Navy-yard, found a break a short time since in the communicating copper wire about three-eighths of an inch long, through which the saw passed in the solid gutta-percha, showing that the disconnection must have occurred during the process of manufacture, and therefore leading to the very great probability that other similar lesions may have occurred in other parts of the cable. What have the electricians to say in regard to this fact, which is reliably authenticated?—N. Y. Times, 30th ult.

IMPRISONED FOR SELLING LIQUOR.—A peculiarity in Massachusetts law and justice is noted in the case of a woman complained of for selling liquor at Natick. The woman had a daughter twelve years old, who was arrested with her on the charge. The court sentenced both of them to imprisonment and fine. The mother appealed and obtained bail, but the little girl is now serving out her sixty days sentence.

STRANGE FINANCIAL FACT.—We find a strange fact in existence in New-York. Country bank notes are actually worth more than specie; and such notes are hoarded up, while silver is paid out. The following from the U. S. Economist, will show the operation of this anomaly in New York City:

A person has $1,000 wages to pay on Saturday. Instead of paying in country bank notes he buys $1,000 in silver for $995 bank money, and saves five dollars, at the same time paying specie to his men. Such a state of the money market never occurred before. It is obvious that a continuance of such a state of things would drive country bank notes out of circulation and fill all the channels with silver. But to do this, it will be required that silver should increase as fast as the demands of returning activity in trade.

COW-ARDLY.—Mr. Murdoch, of Madison, Ind., a few nights since, thinking he heard burglars about, stepped out of doors and fired a gun at a dark-looking object before him. He found that he had killed one of his neighbor's cows, worth $100.

CURE FOR BRONCHITIS.—One of our cleverest and most reliable friends' says the Holly Springs Herald, informs us that common mullen leaves, smoked in a new pipe—one in which tobacco had never been used—is a sure and certain cure for bronchitis. The remedy is simple and innocent, and within the reach of all. Recollect that this is not the remedy of a retired physician whose sands of life have nearly run out, but is given to us by one who has tried it himself and seen it tried with others, and has never known it to fail in effecting a permanent cure. The remedy is simple, and we can certainly discover no harm likely to arise from a trial.

☞ A SNAKE IN THE STOMACH.—The Cleveland Review says that on Friday last, a son of Capt. Connelly, about fourteen years of age, was relieved by passage through his bowels of a "copper-head snake," a foot and a half long. How it found it's way into his stomach is a matter of conjecture merely. The boy for a long time had a ravenous appetite which excited notice, and had frequently spoken of feeling "something crawling in his body."

☞ Spurgeon sometimes comes out with a good thing. "Brethren," said he, "if God had referred the Ark to a Committee on Naval Affairs, it's my opinion it wouldn't have been built yet."

Telegraph News by the Atlantic Cable.
THE OYSTER SEASON IN ENGLAND has commenced and the honorable Lords and Cockneys of Her Majesty's realm were, as they supposed, regaling their palates with the best of these Bivalves that either hemisphere afforded. But they have found out their mistake, and the Copper Flavored Oysters of Great Britain are in no demand, they cannot be given away.
This revolution was caused by the advent of a few cases of Hatch, Mann & Co.'s celebrated Baltimore Oysters in the London market, which had been ordered by steamer to be used in the Festivities of the Celebration.
Messrs. Hatch, Mann & Co. have opened their Great Western Wholesale Depot at No. 139 North Water street (between Clark and Lasalle streets, in Abby & Co.'s Stoneware Depot), where can be found in their season Shell and Can Oysters, fresh from their beds, and received daily by Express. Also—Spiced and Hemetrically Sealed Oysters constantly on hand.
The reputation that H. M. & Co.'s Oysters have acquired in every market during the past four years is a sufficient guarantee that they cannot fail to give satisfaction superior to all others now in market.

DR. MANN'S
AGUE BALSAM,
UNRIVALLED IN THE HISTORY OF MEDICINE.
WHY? BECAUSE SINCE THE FIRST settlements of the rich prairies and fertile valleys of the West, it has been the great study of all Physicians to produce a perfect cure for ague, fever, and all billious diseases, so thoroughly prevalent and so fearfully fatal in their results. The mineral and vegetable kingdoms have heretofore been ransacked in vain except for remedies only partially successful but this is entirely vegetable and will never fail. Reader, we defy you to find a case so obstinate that Mann's Ague Balsam will not cure; we do not hesitate to say that the remedy so long sought has at length been found that will never fail. See the following:
Oberlin, Ohio, June 1st, 1858.
Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co.—Gents: Having had occasion to use some of your Ague Balsam in my family, I find it the most prompt and efficient remedial agent for the certain cure of ague ever used, and as a strengthening tonic I think it has no equal. Your Ob't Serv't,
SAM'L HENDRY
Olney, Ill., September 20, 1857.
Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co.—Gents: Your Ague Balsam is the only remedy that seems to meet the wants of the people of this locality. We have, upon our shelves, all the popular remedies of the day for the cure of intermittents, but Dr. Mann's Balsam sells in preference to all others, from the simple fact that it cures. It is destined to excel all other remedies ever offered. Truly Yours,
G. W. HAYNE.
Dr. Mann & Co., Gallion, Ohio—Gents: Your Ague Balsam is the people's own remedy, in this part of the country, for the cure of ague and fever. We have never known it to fail in any case when properly used. It is looked upon as a perfect antidote to malarious diseases.
Very Truly Yours, REED & PETTIJOHN.
Cairo, Ill., May 15th, 1858.
Seymour, Ind., April 30, 1858.
Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co., Gallion, Ohio—Gentlemen: I would say for the benefit of all concerned, that I have a little daughter, about six years of age, that has had the chills ever since last fall; we could do nothing with it until we received your Balsam. We commenced giving it according to directions and are happy to state that she has not had a chill since she commenced taking it. I shall use my exertions in the bounds of my influence to give your Balsam a circulation.
Respectfully Yours, N. P. EDWARDS.

FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.
RESPECTING
Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam.
THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.
DR. CHRISTIE'S AGUE BALSAM is the best remedy for the permanent cure of Chills and Fever, Fever and Ague, Dumb Ague, and all malarious diseases incident to the climate.
DR. CHRISTIE'S AGUE BALSAM has never been known to fail where the directions have been strictly followed.
DR. CHRISTIE'S AGUE BALSAM is a
PURELY VEGETABLE COMPOUND,
Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Strychnine, or anything of a poisonous or deleterious nature.
DR. CHRISTIE'S AGUE BALSAM has had for years the largest sales of any remedy for a specific disease ever offered to the public.
DR. CHRISTIE'S AGUE BALSAM has attained its immense popularity through its own merits, its great power in curing disease, its singular harmlessness and freedom from hurtful ingredients. It can be taken by the helpless infant, vigorous youth and feeble age, ever without injury, and always with benefit.
READ WHAT AGENTS SAY.
Dr. H. Symmes, of Mattoon, Ill., under date of Aug. 2d, 1858, says:—"Send me another lot of Christie's Ague Balsam as I have but two bottles in store, and the demand is on the increase. I am insuring every bottle, and none have been returned."
J. W. Plummer, Druggist, Vinton, Iowa, under date of Aug. 24th, 1857, writes:—"Send me half a gross of Christie's Ague Balsam. I have but three bottles on hand and it is selling rapidly. It is the best remedy for Ague I have ever sold."
Mr. A. N. Blackidge, of Metamora, Ind., writes us June 12, 1857, and says that the Balsam has cured in every case where taken. He further says that one case came from the Wabash, Mr. S. W. Swigert, who had the Ague eighteen or twenty months. He insured three bottles to cure him. He took only one bottle and the result was a permanent cure. He had paid about $90 doctor bills.
AFFLICTED FOR YEARS.
Delphos, O., Jan. 13, 1858.
Messrs. Hunt & Gardner—Gents:—I wish to make known to the public an article, from which I have derived more benefit than from all other medicines which I have ever used. I have been suffering from Fever and Ague and its effects, for the last five years, during which time I have scarcely enjoyed a day of good health, until I procured from your drug store a bottle of Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam. In a few days I found myself [illegible] the symptom since I commenced taking it, (about three months,) although constantly exposed to cold weather. To my friends and the public generally, suffering from this disease in any form, I would say, procure a bottle and save health, constitution, and money.
Yours, J. B. GROSCOST.
Above are only a few testimonials in favor of CHRISTIE'S AGUE BALSAM, but space forbids publishing more. Price $1 per bottle, or $6 bottles for $5.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR
PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,
COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS,
IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE and LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.
LIVER INVIGORATOR.
These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease, effecting a radical cure.
Billious attacks are cured, and, what is better prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.
One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.
Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.
Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.
One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.
One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.
One dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventative of Cholera.
Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.
One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.
One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.
One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhea in its worst forms, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.
A few bottles will cure Dropsy by exciting the absorbents.
We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventative for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all fevers of a Billious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.
ALL WHO USE IT ARE GIVING THEIR UNANIMOUS TESTIMONY IN ITS FAVOR.
☞ Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.
PRICE ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.
DR. SANFORD, Proprietor, No. 345 Broadway, New York. Retailed by all Druggists. Sold, also, by BOLLES, SMITH & CO., and FAHNESTOCK & DAVIS, 118 Randolph street.

FEVER AND AGUE
CURED WITHOUT ARSENIC OR QUININE.
DR. LEED'S QUININE SUBSTITUTE, or NERVE TONIC is a positive cure for Chills and Fever,
And all diseases arising from derangement of the Nervous System, and very successful in preventing
YELLOW, PANAMA AND CHAGRES FEVERS.
The recipe was discovered by a regularly graduated physician, and is therefore entitled to the same confidence as any other physician's prescription. A single trial will prove its efficacy. One bottle in ordinary cases of Fever and Ague will effect a cure. All that is asked is a fair trial. All who have used it speak loudly in its favor. Read the Circular. J. H. LIGHT!! MORE LIGHT!!
EVERY FAMILY THEIR OWN GAS MAKER.
NO CHEMICAL HUMBUG.
THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE MADE EXtensive arrangements for supplying any store, public house or private dwelling in the city or suburbs with J. W. Smith's New Patent Gas Generator.
By means of this exceedingly simple, cheap and convenient arrangement, any family can have, at a cost not to exceed one-fourth the cost of the city gas, a light more brilliant and white, and not at all offensive. This is none of the chemical humbugs with which the country is flooded, but genuine Gas, manufactured by means of a simple arrangement (lately patented) made to attach to any gas pipe, to be used with ordinary gas burners.
THINGS YOU WILL AVOID BY USING THIS GAS.
1st—Three-fourths of all expense.
2d—All offensive odor.
3d—Uncertain and poor light.
4th—The annoyance of defective meters, monthly bills, advance deposits, &c.
The following are among the many certificates we have from those using this Gas:
Washington City, D. C., July 1st, 1858.
This may certify that we have been using J. W. Smith's Portable Gas Generator, to light our store, which has 17 burners, using from 5 to 8 feet per hour to each burner, making the gas every night as we want it. We find this new invention to be a valuable one. For economy, safety and brilliancy it is by far the best artificial light now extant. Our gas bill from the Gas Company at the rate of $3.50 per month, when this Gas has not cost over $4 or $5 a month, and produces a stronger and purer light. Our experience with it since the 1st of February last, warrants us in recommending it to all that may wish a cheap and safe light.
E. TUCKER & BRO., Pennsylvania avenue.
TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—The undersigned, [illegible] of J. W. Smith's Portable Gas Generator, [illegible] experiments carefully made by us we are [illegible] that the cost of gas made by this apparatus [illegible] number of burners, the capacity of the [illegible] equal. Special Notices.

Dr. J. Hostetter's Bitters.—These Bit- ters are universally acknowledged to be a sure preven- tive and cure for Fever and Ague, Flatulence, heavi- ness of the stomach, or any other like affection. Their effect upon the system is most miraculous; they give a healthy tone to the system, remove all morbid matter, and in fact thoroughly cleanse the system of all impuri- ties. The proprietors, in presenting this preparation to the public, assure them that in no single case, when it has been used according to their directions, has it been known to fail, but on the contrary, new virtues have been discovered in its use. To those afflicted with any of the above ills of the body, the "Bitters" are offered as a speedy and certain cure. Try them and form your own opinion.
For sale by Druggists and dealers generally, everywhere. se27-3w-d&w

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—Sal- low cheeks, dull eyes, a languid step, blotches and pim- ples on the face and forehead—all these proclaim the vic tim of dyspepsia, and all these can be rapidly and durably cured by the use of these gentle but thorough and irre- sistable remedies. Sold at the manufactory, No. 80 Mai- den Lane, New York, and by all druggists, at 25c, 63c and $1 per box or pot. se27-1w

All those who are afflicted with any Chronic disease considered incurable, will receive a LETTER giv- ing information which will insure a speedy and perma- nent cure by sending their names and one stamp (to pre- pay postage) to Dr. E. B. FOOTE, the celebrated Chronic Physician, and author of "Medical Common Sense." Saratoga Springs, N. Y. se14-3md&w-a834

Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam.—The ex- cessive heat of the past summer has left almost everybody in a debilitated condition, and therefore liable to billious diseases. The fever and ague is now quite prevalent, and we consider it our duty to call the attention of the public to one of the greatest remedies of the age for all Billious Complaints, such as Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Dumb Ague, &c. Unlike nearly all similar preparations, it is free from poisonous substances, and it can be admin- istered to all ages and classes without injurious results.
Use no other Ague Balsam except CHRISTIE'S, as there are several articles by that name which are totally unlike Dr. Christie's, the original inventor. See Adver- tisement.

For sale By druggists generally. se7

Sawyer's Fluid Extract of Bark, an infallible remedy for the Fever and Ague, and the vari- ous forms of Billious Diseases, Intermittent, Remittent, Chill Fever and Dumb Ague, having their origin in mala- ria of very fertile and marshy districts, prepared by Dr. S. S. Sawyer, Druggist and Chemist, and sold by Sawyer, Paine & Co., No. 16 Lake street, Chicago.
This remedy is prepared entirely from vegetable sub- stances, and contains no mercury, arsenic, or anything that can prove injurious to the system. Its effects are those of a deobstruent and tonic, well adapted to restore the healthy action of the Liver and Stomach, whose functions are so generally impaired in this class of dis- eases.
Quinine and other tonics serve only in many cases to break the chills, but do not remove the diseases of the liver and other organs implicated, on which the chill and fever depend; hence the usefulness of the "Fluid Extract of Bark," (particularly in regions where Physi- cians cannot be readily consulted), which contains all the qualities suited to the indications of these maladies.
Hundreds of testimonials in regard to the efficacy of the medicine from persons of respectability, have been given to the proprietor—but he does not make use of them as he prefers to have the medicine introduce itself securely by its merits.

Dyspepsia and Fits.—Dr. O. Phillips BROWN, The Great Curer of Consumption, was for several years so badly afflicted with Dyspepsia that for a part of the time he was confined to his bed. He was eventually cured by a prescription furnished him by a young clairvoyant girl. This prescription, given him by a mere child, while in a trance, has cured every- body who has taken it—never having failed once. It is equally as safe in cases of Fits as Dyspepsia. The ingre- dients may be found in any Drug Store. I will send this prescription to any person on the receipt of one stamp to pay postage. Address DR. O. PHILLIPS BROWN, No. 21 Grand-st., Jersey City, N. J.

Charles' London Cordial Gin.—The Original and only London Gin Imported. This Gin, distilled in Lon- don from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valua- ble restoratives of the Vegetable Kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent medical men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic drink in use.
It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, dif- fering entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.
Though not intended as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, the Kid- neys and the Bowels, Nervous Debility, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their deli- cate organization.
Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."
It is peculiarly adapted to settlers in the Southern and Western States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.
For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and pints thirty- eight cents, by all Druggists, Grocers, Fruiterers, and Country Merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'. NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.
May be had in Chicago, Ill., of PENTON, ROBINSON & SMITH, No. 15 South Water street; HAVEN, TYRRELL & CO., No. 47 South Water street.

These have effectually relieved me in repeated instances of late, and I can cheerfully and conscientiously recommend them to others who are similarly affected." Personal and Political.

A late dispatch says the Treasury Department is being flooded with letters from Pennsylvania and other sections, complaining of the injurious effects of the present tariff upon the iron interests of the country. We are curious to see whether the Democracy will go for free trade in their plat- form for 1860.

—The potency of time in effecting changes of opinion or policy is strikingly illustrated in the case of Charles J. Faulkner, now a rival of Gov Wise for the leadership of the rampant pro-slavery Democracy of Virginia. Twenty years ago he declared in the Virginia Legislature—

"Sir, tax our lands—vilify our country—carry the sword of extermination through our defence- less villages; but spare us, I implore you, spare us the curse of slavery—that bitterest drop from the chalice of the destroying angel."

—F. W. Kellogg, just nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the 3d District of Michigan, was formerly an Ohio shoemaker, but now runs a saw mill in the Michigan pineries.

—The parishioners of Henry Ward Beecher pro- pose to enlarge his church so as to accommodate six thousand persons. At a recent meeting on the subject he said he thought that in the natural course of events, he had ten years longer, at least, to live; and that ten years was likely to be the most active portion of his life. He believed he could preach as easily to 6,000 persons as to 3,000, if the church was properly constructed; and thus he would be enabled to do twenty years preaching in ten years; in other words, to double himself. Moses S. Beach offered to be one of one hundred men to give $1,000 each for the purpose.

—"Little Ella" is the name given to an infant prodigy in New York, who recites huge quantities of poetry and prose with apparent intelligence and certainly great oratorical success. She is but four years of age, and from all accounts is a re- markable phenomenon.

—The late Ebenezer Francis of Boston, the richest man in New England, left no bequest to Harvard College, as expected. He bequeaths $100,000 in legacies, $200,000 to each of his two daughters, Mrs. Mann and Mrs. Bowditch, and the balance of his estate he places in trust for the ben- efit of his nine grandchildren; the interest, about $234,000 per year, to go to his daughters. The grand total is about $3,500,000.

—The way in which Harwitz beat Morphy at their first game of chess in Paris is described as follows in an English paper:

"Harwitz won first move, and proposed to play the 'King's gambit,' which the Yankee accepted. Morphy sacrificed a knight for a terrific attack, which, with an inferior antagonist, must have suc- ceeded. Harwitz made a firm defence, and remain- ed after the shock with queen and four pawns to queen and one. By admirable maneuvering the Prussian succeeded in enforcing an exchange of queens, which decided Morphy to resign."

How the German Boy First Heard of America.

The following extract is from Carl Schurz's lecture on Americanism. It glows with the fire of the genuine orator:

I intend to speak of America as the great re- presentative of the spirit of this age. And when I use the word Americanism, I do not mean that narrow and poor policy which certain men apply to certain political questions, but the ideal nature of this country, of this people, and of their institutions.

It is one of the earliest recollections of my boyhood, that one summer night our whole vil- lage was astir in consequence of an uncommon occurrence. I say our village, for I was born in a small hamlet not far from the beautiful spot where the Rhine rolls his waters out of the won- derful gate of the Seven Mountains and mean- ders with majestic tranquility through one of the most glorious valleys of the world. That night our neighbors were pressing around a few wagons covered with linen sheets and loaded with household utensils and boxes and trunks, to their utmost capacity. One of our neighbor- ing families were moving far away across a great water, and it was said that they would never again return. And I saw silent tears trickling down weather beaten cheeks, and the hands of rough peasants firmly pressing each other, and some of the men and women hardly able to speak when they nodded to one another a last farewell.

At last the train got into motion; they gave three cheers for America! and then in the first gray dawn of the morning, I saw them wend their way over the hill until they disappeared in the shadow of the forest. And I heard many a man say, how happy he would be if he was able to go with them to that great and free new country. That was the first time I heard of America, and my childish imagination took possession of a land covered partly with majestic trees, partly with flowery prairies, immeasurable to the eye, and in- tersected with large rivers and broad lakes—a land where everybody could do what he thought best, and where nobody was poor, because every- body was free.

And later, when I was old enough to read de- scriptions of this country, and books on American history fell into my hands, the offspring of my imagination acquired the colors of reality, and I began to exercise my brain with the thought, what man might be and become when left perfectly free to himself. And still later, when ripening into manhood, I looked up from my school books into the stir and bustle of the world, and the trumpet tones of struggling humanity struck my ear and thrilled my heart, and I saw my nation shake their chains in order to burst them, and I heard a gigantic, universal shout for Liberty rising up to the skies; and, at last, after having struggled manfully and drenched the earth of Father-land with the blood of thou- sands of noble beings, I saw that nation crushed down again, not only by overwhelming armies, but by the leaden weight of customs and insti- tutions, and nations, and prejudices, which past centuries had heaped upon her shoulders, and which a moment of enthusiasm, however sub- lime, could not destroy—then I consoled an al- most despondent heart with the idea of a youth- ful people, and of original institutions, clearing the way for an untrammeled development of the ideal nature of man. Then I turned my eyes instinctively across the Atlantic Ocean, and America, and Americanism, as I fancied it, became to me the last depository of the hopes of all true friends of Humanity.

Is Scotland the most Moral Nation in the World?

[From the New York Tribune, Sept. 11].

It is a very singular fact, that while the Scotch claim to be set down as the most religious and moral nation in the world, there are more ille- gitimate children born in Scotland, and there is more whisky drank, in proportion to the pop- ulation, than in any other country of Europe. It appears from recent returns, that Scotland, with its population of less than three millions, generally poor, proverbially cautious, and uni- versally thrifty, consumes whisky annually to the amount of upward of seven millions of gal- lons, and at a cost, duties included, which has reached, of late, the enormous sum of twenty- four millions of dollars a year, or eight dollars a head for every man, woman and child in the country. Contrary to what happens in almost every other case, even a duplication of the price has not operated to check the consumption, at least, not so far as the knowledge and intention of the consumers went.

In the year 1854, the duty on Scotch whisky was raised from some three shillings and eleven pence to about seven shillings and six pence the gallon, in consequence of which the price rose from six shillings and six pence the gallon in the years 1851 and 1852, to eleven shillings and two pence in the two last years. This had the effect to produce in these two last years a reduc- tion in the amount of whisky which paid duty to the extent of some five hundred thousand gallons a year, but so far as the consumers were concerned they were wholly unconscious of any such reduction. They thought, in fact, that they were consuming more whisky than ever. The dramsellers, to meet the rise in the price of the article, ought to have raised their charge per gill from three pence to five pence; but, for fear of frightening their customers, they did not venture on that.

They raised the price only to four pence, but to save themselves from loss in selling at this rate they added a quantity of water double the amount of the diminution in the quantity of whisky entered for duty; so that, although the consumption was slightly less, the consumers supposed themselves to have drank more, hav- ing paid for a million of gallons of water at the rate of four pence a gill—all which they swal- lowed, supposing it to be whisky. It would be curious to observe what might be the effect of an addition of three or four shillings more to the duty. Perhaps, by a gradual increase on the part of the dramsellers, of the watery part of the liquid, the Scotch, under the idea all the time that they were still drinking whisky, might be brought at last to put up with pure water.

A couple of idle fellows strolled into the colored church at Harford, a few evenings since, to enjoy the fun; but when the colored minister rose up to preach, before announc- ing his text, he leaned forward on the pulpit, and looked slowly around on his congrega- tion. "Bredren," said he after a while, may "de Lor' have mercy on the scoffers." [Long "pause.] May de Lor' have mercy on the "laughers. [Solemn pause.] May de Lor' "have mercy on de two peanut eaters down "by de door." The two young men did not wait for the benediction.

The Magnificence of the Kremlin.

Bayard Taylor in a recent very interesting letter from Moscow, thus describes the inter- nal splendor of the ancient palace of the Czars:

The plain exterior of the building gives no hint of the splendors within. I have seen all the palaces of Europe (with the exception of the Escurial,) but I cannot now recall one in which the highest possible magnificence is so subservient to good taste, as here. Inlaid floors, of such beautiful design and such pre- cious wood that you tread upon them with regret; capitals, cornices and ceiling-soffits of gold; walls overlaid with fluted silk; giant candelabra of silver and malachite, and the soft gleam of tinted marbles, conbine to make this a truly Imperial residence. The grand hall of St. George, all in white and gold, is literally incrusted with ornamental carved work; that of St. Alexander Nevesky is sump- tuous in blu and gold; of St. Vladimar in crimson and gold; while in that of St. Eliza- beth, the walls are not only overlaid with gold, and the furniture of massive silver, but in the center of every door is a Maltese cross, formed of the largest diamonds! The eye does not tire of this unwonted splendor, nor does it seem difficult to dwell even in such dazzling halls.

Russia's Naval Station in the Mediter- ranean.

The Paris correspondent of the London Globe, writing on Thursday evening, says:

"It is impossible to exaggerate the impor- tance of what has taken place between Russia and the government of Turin. All the pre- liminary interchanges of diplomatic and courtly demonstrations have ended in a solid and substantial fact. Russia has got leased for 22 years to come, at the fixed rate of four millions of francs annual payment into the Sardinian Exchequer, of all the capital mes- suage called the town of Villafranca, with water privileges, comprising a capacious and well-sheltered harbor, capable of accomodat- ing thirty ships of the line, within ten miles of France, two miles from Nice, and in the most favorable position of becoming a small Sebastopol in the heart of the Mediterranean. General la Marmora has just notified to the Piedmontese troops occupying the barracks around that harbor that they must forthwith evacuate the same, and retire on Nice; which town taking alarm lest a quarantine or laza- retto establishment should be set up at Villa- franca, so near their watering-place, the wor- thy General tranquillized them by announc- ing officially that the seaport of Villafranca is now part and portion of all the Russias, and that the new proprietors are the steam company for trade by steamers to and from Odessa."

ANECDOTE OF DR. WEBSTER, A SCOTCH MIN- ISTER.—In 1774, Dr. Webster was a popular preacher of the Kirk of Scotland, in Edin- burgh. Business brought him to London, and one day when passing the House of Lords, his curiosity induced him to make an effort to step in and see them. None were admitted without an order, except noblemen's servants. Webster being ignorant of the rule, requested admitance. "What Lord do you belong to?" said the doorkeeper. "To the Lord Jehovah," answered Webster. "The Lord Jehoviah," repeated the keeper; I have kept here seven years, but I have never heard of such a Lord. Jack," said he to his fellow keeper on the front steps, "here's a chap who says he be- longs to the Lord Jehovah; do you know such a Lord?"—"Never heard of him," says Jack. "But," said Webster, (willing to keep up the illusion,) "there is such a Lord." "Pass'em in," said Jack, "I s'pose it's some poor Scotch Lord." This occurred at a pe- riod when there was not one in twenty of all in the manufacturing and rural districts in England who could read the Bible or write his own name. Sabbath schools were introduced in 1783. Now the people are intelligent and happy, and can not only read and write, but have found out who the "Lord Jehoviah" is.

CONVERSION OF THE DEVIL THROUGH SPIRIT- UALISM.—Mrs. H. F. M. Brown, of Cleveland, lectured yesterday morning at the Melodeon, on Spititualism to a congregation of believers.

In noticing the objections urged by those who opposed their faith, she spoke at some length of the allegation that these manifesta- tions came from the Devil.

She did not care if they did come from the Devil—that was really no ground of objec- tion to them, if the Devil Did communicate such beautiful things as came to us through Spiritual media, it was an evidence that his Satanic majesty was repenting for his evil, and trying to get back to Heaven from which he had fallen. She had studied the history of the Devil carefully, and found from the Bi- ble, the Shasta, and other sources, that after his fall he had been confined in a deep pit, as dark as tar, but in after years the earth was created, and some of the angels pitying him said to the Deity, "Here the poor devil has been down in this dark pit so many years, why may we not let him loose on the earth which is empty?" It was accordingly done, and the Devil became better in his new home, and had gone on improving with the improve- ment of the world, until now it was not un- natural to see him trying to reach a higher sphere by teaching these beautiful truths through spiritual media.—Cincinnati Gazette, 27th.

"THE JOHNSONS DIDN'T ASSOCIATE WITH EVERYBODY."—Among the thousands who met at Indianapolis to welcome Col. Johnson, of Kentucky, when he made his electioneering tour through the Western States in 1840, was "old Charlie," a negro who was once the ser- vant of the Colonel, but was now free and set- tled in Indiana. Charlie was now in full feather. He took the old soldier under his protection, installed himself as doorkeeper, and no one was permitted to shake hands with his former master, unless by Charlie's intro- duction. While the crowd was at the door a portly, pompous man came up, and, taking the negro by the hand, said:

"How d' do, Charlie? glad to see you."

Charlie's dignity was touched by this fa- miliarity, and he refused to recognize the gentleman.

"Why I used to know you," said the man, "when you belonged to Col. Johnson."

"Very likely, sar, very likely," replied Charlie, "there was a great many people that knew us Johnsons that we didn't know. The Johnsons didn't associate with everybody!" —Harper's Drawer.

AN OLD DEPOSIT OF SPECIE FOUND—HON- ORABLE CONDUCT.—Several years ago, James Young, a wealthy citizen of Milford township, Butler county, deceased leaving property valued at $105,000, to be equally divided be- tween his five children. Subsequently the homestead was sold to a Mr. Williamson, who has resided upon it since the sale. A few days ago Mrs. W. found an old Spanish half- dollar while sweeping in a closet near a chim- ney in the main sitting room. She continued to sweep and soon after found several addition- al coins of similar character. Remem- bering Mr. Young's former habits, her curiosity was excited, and she sent for her husband, to whom she exhibited her prizes. They then instituted a search, and in a few moments found a crack in the side of the chimney, and, upon clearing away some rub- bish, they found a deposit of $1,700 in old Spanish silver coins of all denominations, each piece of which was dated as far back as 1828. M. Williamson immediately sent for the heirs of the deceased, and surrendered to them the entire amount. The heirs, however, insisted upon paying Mr. W. and his lady $50 each, making altogether a reward of $250.

PRESIDENT BUCHANAN WRITES TO A "NIG- GER."—The Democracy of the Union, after the Dred Scott decision and the English Fraud, are illy prepared to receive the fol- lowing from their chief to a "Nigger!" The question arises at once, "Is Mr. Buchanan in favor of Negro equality?"

MR. WILLIAMS: The razors which you sent me by Miss Parker are excellent. I never owned better. They became a little dull by constant use. I would thank you to put them in good order for me by to-morrow afternoon, when I will send or call for them.

Yours, &c.,
James Buchanan
Wheatland, Friday Morning, Sept. 17, '57.

But who is "MISS PARKER?" Was she a Nigger, too?

MARRIED HIS STEP-DAUGHTER.—By a cu- rious concatenation of circumstances, one Thomas Galloway, formerly of Vermont and now of Wheeling, Va., married his step-daugh- ter. While he was busy whaling, she, left to herself by the death of her mother, became a fine young woman, went off west, got mar- ried, and became a widow. Thomas return- ing from his whaling happened in the town where the widow resided, saw her, and mar- ried her. After the marriage his wife's ac- count of her early life revealed the relation- ship, but it made no difference to Thomas, for he took possession of some fine property left by his brother, who was drowned in the Ohio, and, happy in his married state, he is now a respectable member of society.

SENSIBLE.—Lorenzo Dow was once travel- ing through the West, and having occasion to stop over night at a public house somewhere on the Mississippi, he was greatly annoyed by the loud and boastful conversation of a lot of river men and the desperate characters who were assembled in the bar-room. Each one was noisy in praise of some favorite weapon of defense and offence and the debate was de- vided between revolvers and bowie-knives when one of them turned to Dow and said: "My friend, what weapon do you carry?"— "Common sense, and mind my own business," replied the eccentric Dow, and from that mo- ment his reputation among them was estab- lished.

The City Council of Charleston, S. C., appointed last Thursday a day of humiliation and prayer, on account of the prevailing epi- demic in that city.

WATER WHEELS.
VANDEWATER'S
Recently Improved Jonval Turbine WATER WHEEL.
'Office, No. 81 South Clark Street, CHICAGO.
I OFFER THIS IMPROVED TURBINE Water Wheel to the public with the fullest confidence and assurance of its SUPERIORITY OVER ALL OTHER WHEELS,
Without any exception. They are well adapted to (and have been tested in) Mills of all descriptions. They give a very
STEADY AND UNIFORM SPEED,
And are well adapted to very high as well as very low heads and falls. They will work well in back water with- out any material loss of power, and are not troubled with ice, as they are set inside of the forebay and dis- charged underneath. It requires a small amount of gear- ing to get up a high speed, costs but little to set up, and runs upon a step that needs no oiling, and will last for years. This Wheel is capable of yielding a power of from 70 to 85 per cent. of the whole power of the water (accord- ing to the degree of finish of wheel) under high heads and falls, and it is warranted to never vary so much in the power laid down in the table and to give satisfaction when properly put up and geared.
State, County and Town territories for sale.
For further particulars see circulars, which can be ob- tained at the Agent's Office, No. 81 South Clark st.
FRANCIS HARVEY, Proprietor.

HOP YEAST.
ATTENTION HOUSEKEEPERS.— Knowing the difficulty of getting Good Yeast in this city and county, the undersigned has com- menced the manufacture of Hop Yeast in Chica- go. It is put up in the form of a dry cake and is known as the "New England Dry Hop Yeast Cake." They may be had of any respectable Grocer in this city, and towns in this and adjoining states. By using these cakes and keep- ing them on hand, you can in two minutes time have a cup of fresh yeast and at an expense of one penny.
DIRECTIONS FOR USING.—Break a cake into a cup of blood warm water—it will dissolve in two minutes—then make your sponge and set it to rise over night. Knead your dough well and keep it warm until ready or the oven, and you will have better bread than with any other yeast. One cake is sufficient for three quarts of flour. Retail price, 1 shilling for a package of 12 cakes, or $1.25 for a gross box.
Inquire of your grocer for the New England Dry Hop Yeast Cake, and take nothing else if you would have good raised bread. If he has not got it ask him to get it for you. Manufactory on Cottage Grove Avenue, near the Car Works, Chicago, Ill. P. O. address Box 3134. Grocers or- ders promptly filled whether in city or county.

COMMERCIAL

Commercial and Money Matters.

FRIDAY EVENING, Oct. 1.

MONEY.—Eastern Exchange steady at 1 per cent. premium, with a fair supply. Gold 1@1½ per cent. premium.

COMMERCIAL.—The Breadstuffs markets were still more depressed to-day. The Wheat market declined 1@3c on the various qualities of Winter and Spring. About 25,000 bu Winter and 50,000 bu Spring were sold at $1.05@1.05½ for No. 1 Red in store; 98c for No. 2 Red; and 75c for Rejected. Spring Wheat suffered a decline of 3c.—the quotations being as follows:—No. 1 Spring, 88c in store; No 2, 71@73c in store; "Stumptail," 60c f. o. b.; Rejected, 58@59c in store.

The corn market was very inactive, holders and buyers being apart. Sales of about 30,000 bu were made at 58c afloat for Canal; 56c for No. 1 in store; and 53@54c for No 2 in store. Market closing weak.

There was a better demand for Barley. A cargo of Canada was sold to arrive at $1 per bu. No 1 Barley sold here at 75c in store; No. 2 at 46@49c in store.

The Flour market, under a constant decline in the East, was weak and depressed. No sales for shipment are reported.

Freights were easier to-day. Vessels were chartered at 3c for corn, and 4c for wheat to Buffalo; 8c for wheat to Oswego; and 9½c for wheat to Ogdensburgh.

The Vincennes (Ind.) Sun of the 28th, says of crops:

In a short trip through portions of Washington, Widener and Vigo townships, a few days ago, we found the corn crops looking very indifferently in the best localities, and there are no hopes of raising good crops even should they not be cut down by early frosts, while in the best corn-growing regions—the Wabash and White river bottoms—there has been comparatively no seed sown. This state of things also holds good in relation to Illinois, and the statement published a few days ago, that "there is a fair prospect that the corn crop throughout this part of the country will be a full average one," is certainly far wide of the truth.

THE BRITISH CORN TRADE.

[From the Mark Lane Express, Sept. 13.]

The harvest in Scotland has been considerably interrupted during the past week by the fluctuations in the weather, and a more settled time is much needed in the North. The long drought, however, has made the showers very serviceable in the Midland and Southern Counties of England, where the grass lands have much improved, and some places have secured a second cut. Still the opportunities to do this have been rare. The more unfavorable advices respecting potatoes have made an increased demand for Indian Corn for Ireland, and its value seems likely rather to increase than otherwise. The country markets have been generally well supplied with wheat, principally new; but millers having kept low in stock, there has mostly been a ready sale at full prices, and even some occasional improvement for fine qualities. As our crop, though much inferior to last year's, perhaps ranks the first in the world, and the last general averages show peas, including those for hog-feed, within 2d. per qr. of the price of wheat, and beans really 1s. 4d. per qr. above it, the farmer may look with more confidence as to future prices, unless he forces off his stock prematurely.

In France there is already a better feeling, and some increase in the value of Wheat, the late large arrivals at Marseilles not having prevented a rise of about 1s. 6d. per qr. The decline in Belgium has given place to some reaction. The Baltic by no means sheds its course to English prices, and at New York the consumptive demand for fine quality Wheat keeps it at a price beyond the British market. Many provinces of Russia besides Poland are full of complaints; while the Danubian Principalities have poor crops, and little left over, but qualities unfit for shipment. In floating cargoes there has been a fair business upon twenty-nine arrivals since the 3d inst. The sales comprised 9 cargoes of wheat, viz: 1 of Polish Odessa, at 45s.; 4 of Galatz, at 40 to 42s.; 1 mixed with Roumelia, at 34s.; 1 of Egyptian at 28s.; and 2 of Saidi, at 29s. 3d. and 30s. Of Maize, 16 or 17 cargoes were sold, at 30s. 1½d.; 2 of Barley, at 21s. 3d. and 24s.; and 1 of Dari, at 25s. 10½d.

The sales noted last week were 101,510 qrs. of Wheat at 45s. 3d. per qr., against 105,841 qrs. the corresponding period of 1857.

The London averages were 4,223 qrs. at 48s. 7d.

The imports of Wheat and Flour into the principal ports of Great Britain for the week ending September 1st, were 51,514 qrs.

The fluctuations in the Wheat trade of the country have been unimportant, a few markets, especially those held early, being rather in buyer's favor, while those held later have been against them. Better supplies have been brought forward, but in many instances growers have withdrawn their samples in preference to yielding even slightly. Leeds and Selby were dull, and 1s per qr. lower; but Hull was firm, Spalding and Bristol being 1s. per qr. higher; Manchester and Gloucester, and most other places being fully as dear. Liverpool, on Tuesday, found a good consumptive demand for the finer qualities of Wheat at 1d. to 2d. per 70 pounds advance; fine Flour also improved 6d. per sack and barrel. Old Oats were firm, but new easier. Other Spring Corn was unaltered. Yellow Maize advanced 6d. to 1s. per qr., closing at 33s and white at 34s. to 34s. 6d. per qr. On Friday the attendance was thin, and sales slow at previous rates, the only change being a further advance in Maize of 6d. per qr.

Spring corn has continued steady, and full-priced, new Oats excepted.

In Scotland the frequent rains have been against the completion of the harvest. Edinburgh, with a full market, found a fair sale at quite as much money for wheat. At Glasgow the better sort of American was 1s per qr. higher; flour being also improved 6d to 1s per sack and barrel. Oats and meal maintained their value. Beans and Peas were unaltered.

The Irish markets have evinced more tone, with an upward tendency in prices. Business at Dublin, though quiet, was firm. Wet and cold weather having lately prevailed in the neighborhood of Cork, there were more unfavorable accounts of potatoes. Inferior new wheat was neglected, but fine sold at full prices, and maize was attracting attention. Bad-conditioned wheat was also rather cheaper at Waterford, foreign being unaltered, and flour firm. Black oats were 2d to 3d easier, but maize advanced 6d per brl.

THE HARVEST IN IRELAND.

The following, taken from a midland Irish paper, will give a pretty fair view of the state of the crops:—"Oats never promised better, and even the late sown were more advanced than could have been expected by the most sanguine, when the seed was put into the ground. As to the 'murphies,' their appearance promises the most prolific return of sound healthy tubers that ever gladdened the heart of the farmer. The harvest cutting is already far advanced; though in some places adjacent to the town of Carlow the sickle has not yet commenced operations. Everything promises favorable to a plentiful year—glorious tidings for the poor."—Carlow Sentinel.

THE POTATO CROP.

DUBLIN, Sept. 11.—This day's reports of the state of the weather in some of the northern counties are by no means favorable; and as the consequence of the continued wet, the accounts of the spread of the potato blight are becoming more numerous. The Banner of Ulster says:

"The decay in the native esculent, which must now be regarded as unmistakeably hereditary, if not perennial, is making melancholy ravages in nearly every quarter of this district, and, so far as we can learn, throughout a much wider division of the country. As has happened for two or three years past, the cruffle—the best of the table varieties of potatoes—now suffers more severely than any other description; while the largest and best grown tubers are found most tainted. Potatoes so injured are to be had in almost any quantity in this market, at from 1s. 8d. to 2s. per cwt., for pig-feeding, for which they are rapidly bought up, and are encouraging the rearing of young porkers. Picked cruffles sell so high as 4s. 8d., and even upwards, per cwt. White rocks, cups, M'Mullans, and other sorts in general use in Belfast, are not so much diseased as the foregoing, but are all more or less blighted. Shipments from this port to England, Wales and Scotland are moderately brisk."

Chicago Daily Live Stock Market.

FRIDAY EVENING, Oct. 1, 1858.

The receipts of Stock at Sherman's cattle yards have been in excess of demand.

BEEF CATTLE.—A number of quite poor quality have been received, and sellers find it difficult to dispose of them. Good fat, smooth Steers find purchasers in Eastern shippers, at fair prices; very few of this sort, however, are offered. It has, therefore, been dull at the yards, with few sales. Several hundred left over unsold.

HOGS.—Receipts fair and of unusually good quality for the season. They are taken readily by shippers and packers, at fair prices.

SHEEP.—But little doing. We have no sales to note to-day. One or two lots left over unsold.

There has been a decline of 50 cents per head, and the sales are quite moderate. We quote at $3@5.50 for ordinary to prime.

Albany Barley Market—Sept. 29.

The Barley market continues much excited, and closes very buoyant, with an active demand for lots to arrive. We might almost say at any figure holders choose to name. In the country the excitement is full as great as here, between the Philadelphia maltsters and buyers for the East; the former are sweeping the southern sections of the State, and through Ontario and Livingston counties. The sales since our last add up near 60,000 bushels; 32,500 bu four-rowed State at 100@105c, all which closed at 105c, and all afloat except one car-load; [illegible] four-rowed at 100c; [illegible] Onondaga, 100c, and 4,500 bu choice Cayuga two-rowed, 105c; 5,000 bu Canada West and 10,000 bu Canada East, to arrive, on p. t., but far ahead of any figures yet reported. Included in the sales are 1,300 bushels four-rowed at 97c, and 500 do. new four-rowed at 100.—Statesman.

OH! WHAT A SMELL!! IS THE exclamation of almost every person who opens one of the Old Ice Chests, after being shut up a little while. Of course food must be unhealthy when thus confined. Then why will any one continue their use, when they can procure an article in every way so perfect and desirable as the

WINSHIP'S

SELF-VENTILATING REFRIGERATOR.

Manufactured and sold by Thos. George & Co., who are also Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Arthur's celebrated Self-Sealing Cans and Jars; and the OLD DOMINION COFFEE POT.

Of which the Springfield (Mass.) "Republican" truly says: "Few of the late inventions of the day can claim a success like this already celebrated article of household economy. It is constructed in a neat, simple, though scientific manner, and its advantages are that it makes deliciously fragrant coffee, even if used by unskillful hands, and retains all the aroma of the berry, that usually escapes in steam when cooked in the old-fashioned way. The draught which it makes is nectar compared with that of old-time coffee-pots."

Also—Wright's Patent Filter for screwing on to the Hydrant. Price, $2.50. And Kedzie's Patent Water Filter, five sizes, and prices lower than ever before.

Masser's Patent Ice Cream Freezers.

SPURGEON'S GEMS.—

Being Brilliant Passages from the Sermons of the Rev. C. H. SPURGEON, of London.

1 Vol....12mo....Price $1.00.

We have gathered from his discourses many of the most striking passages and set them in these pages without regard to the order of subjects or their relations to each other; a series of earnest thoughts and graphic pictures all of them revealing the true greatness of the preacher's conceptions, his individuality and strength. No one can read the first page of this volume without feeling the speaker is an original.

The publishers present this book as a specimen of Mr. Spurgeon's happiest thoughts, gems from his discourses, which will glow in the mind of the reader, and quicken him a desire to read and hear more of this remarkable youthful preacher.

[The] accessions to the number of our priva[te residen]ces are of a notable character. Thoug[h there are] fewer five-story business blocks, we h[ave no] less we have a much larger increa[se of improve]ments, many of them of the better cl[ass than in] any previous year of our history as a [city].

We notice in progress on Michig[an avenue,] near Col. E. D. Taylor's, that the al[illegible] costly marble residence of B. F. Had[ley] is in process of erection. It is of A[thens marble,] finely wrought, and is to cost $20,00[0].

On Park Row, fronting East on [the lake,] Henry Fuller, Esq., is about to build [a] marble residence of the same class of [illegible] a striking improvement on that fine [illegible] will cost $20,000.

On Wabash Avenue, near Harmon [Court,] B. Phillips, Esq., is erecting a reside[nce of Mil]waukee brick, in the Italian style, at [a cost of] $7,000.

On the same Avenue, near Eldridg[e Court,] a costly and unique block of two re[sidences of] Athens marble in the French villa [style] [illegible] Messrs. Rosenfeld & Rosenberg, havin[g a] front of thirty-nine feet. The cut stone [illegible] are the finest ever furnished in this c[ity. The] block will cost $30,000.

On Indiana Avenue, South of Ol[d illegible] French villa is to be erected by J. [illegible] the pressed brick, at a cost of $10,00[0].

KARL FORMES' MAMMOTH CONCERT.—[The sale] of seats for this grand affair will [commence] Tuesday morning, at the Music Store [illegible] when the plans of the Hall may be [seen. The] Concert will take place on Thursday [evening at] Metropolitan Hall. We see that the [management] has arranged the price at $1,50 and $1 [according] to location. This will give general [satisfaction] to all classes, for in comparison with [other con]certs that have been given here [this ticket] should be worth $5.

This will, indeed, be one of the [greatest] musical entertainments which has [ever been] tendered to us. It is seldom that we h[ave an op]portunity of hearing a singer like Fo[rmes, and] when we have combined with him [such artists] as Madame Schumann, Miss Hattie A[nderson,] Ernest Perring, Theodore Thomas [and a] grand orchestra, under the directi[on of] Anschutz, we may, indeed, look fo[r a] musical festival, which, for brill[iancy and] grandeur, has never yet been equ[alled in this] city. Dwight's Journal of Music [says] of him says: "He is one of those ra[re sing]ers who possess the qualities of the [illegible] eminent a degree, who has so much [illegible] and inspiration of the music in hi[s soul, and] conveys it with so much truth of [expression,] force of voice and personal magnetism [illegible] liverance of the great bass solo, in the [illegible] oratorios, is truly wonderful; his [illegible] phrasing, emphasis, and light and [shade] very perfect; his grand voice furn[ishes a] large and palpable tone substance, [which seems] to impart a grandeur of expression [such as has] scarcely been approached before."
